Big 3 Staggered At Report Lloyd May Be Replaced

British Deny Hint Of Pending Ouster; Fears Rise Russia May Seek New Split

GENEVA (UPI)—The Western Big Three opened a new week of secret talks with Russia today, staggered by London reports that British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd soon may be replaced.

The report, published by the authoritative Times of London, shook British prestige at the Foreign Ministers' conference table and raised fears of new Soviet moves to split the West. It came at a time when a break appeared possible over the East-West stalemate over Berlin.

Officials here and in London denied the Times dispatch. But the newspaper's reputation as a highly-respected and generally well-informed publication with solid pipelines into the government gave the report great import here.

As one diplomat put it, it was sufficient to "yank the rug" out from under Lloyd.

TOUGHER POLICY

Some observers feared Russia's Andrei Gromyko would react by toughening still further the already-tough Communist line here to see if the Times report indicated a major shift of British policy.

Lloyd himself met with Secretary of State Christian Herter, French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville and West German "adviser" Wilhelm Grewe for an hour this morning to discuss conference strategy.

NOT DISCUSSED

French circles said, however, that the Times of London report was not discussed at the ministerial level during this previously-scheduled western consultation.

Then they drove to Gromyko's villa for the first session of their fourth week here—a secret meeting aimed at working out an arrangement on Berlin that would preserve the

7 Car Clubs Ask Drag Strip In North Marin

Seven Marin car clubs have called a meeting for tonight in the county courthouse to push plans for a drag strip in North Marin.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, Capt. Joseph Brusatori of the San Rafael Police Department and businessmen and lawyers have been invited to the meeting, said Eli Foure of the Marin Coupe and Roadster Club, who will act as chairman. The meeting is set for 7:30 o'clock in the Superior Court room of Judge N. Charles Brusatori.

The clubs have the possibility of gift of the use of acreage near Novato which belongs to the Dons Club of San Francisco, Foure said.

The seven clubs have organized the Marin County Timing Assn. to operate the drag strip if it is obtained.

Clubs participating are the Marin Coupe and Roadster Club, Elminators, Sleepers, Strip Pacers, Rumblers, Road Runners and Twister of Novato.

Students, Parents Protest Actions Of 'Wolf Pack'

Irate citizens and the law lashed back today against a "reign of terror" inflicted on Ross Valley teen-agers by a gang of fist-swinging youths believed headed by Terence (Kayo) Hallinan of Ross.

Hallinan, 22-year-old son of attorney and once presidential candidate Vincent Hallinan, was arrested this afternoon for felonious assault. He immediately pulled $2,500 cash from his pocket and bailed himself out of jail.

A group of students of Sir Francis Drake and Marin Catholic High Schools and their parents appeared en masse before Asst. Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety and Larkspur Police Chief Howard Clark today to describe at least four attacks, including a broken jaw administered to James W. Thalhamer Jr., 18, of 26 Maple avenue, Fairfax, last Friday night at the Greenbrae Lanes bowling alley.

Young Thalhamer said his brother George, 16; Adelbert Smith, 17, of 50 Madrone avenue, San Anselmo, and he went to the bowling alley about 10 p.m. to look for a friend. As they walked out through the parking lot, about nine youths approached them. They said "hey" as if to ask for a a light, then without another word, Hallinan hit James Thalhamer in the jaw with his fist, according to witnesses.

The victim said he does not know the attackers and no words were exchanged before the sudden blow.

Chief Clark disclosed that another Hallinan boy, Matthew (Dynamite), 18, hit Robert Whelan, 16, of 90 Berkeley avenue, San Anselmo, in the face and stomach on May 23 during the Marin Catholic High School Fiesta. This, too, was apparently unprovoked, he said. Other members of the gang have not been identified.

The Hallinan boys are known as expert boxers. Kayo is boxing champion at University of California.

Several similar attacks by "wolf pack" gangs have occurred since May 22, but many of the victims have been silenced by fear of retaliation, according to police.

Here are the incidents that came to light today, as the wave of indignation mounted:

Thomas R. Coates, manager of the Greenbrae Lanes bowling alley, said another teen-aged boy was assaulted in the men's room about 10 minutes before Thalhamer suffered his jaw fracture. Asst. Dist. Atty. Garety said the boy was in such a "state of fright" that he refused to identify himself or his assailants.

Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich has assigned Inspector Donald E. Midyett to work with Chief Clark in trying to identify the victim and the attackers.

An employee of the bowling alley, Paul Hansen, quit the job after he was assaulted in the men's room on May 22. Hansen's mother did not want to sign a complaint but would not allow her son to work there.

On May 23 at Marin Catholic High School, Robert Whelan said he was hit for no reason by "Dynamite" Hallinan. When Orlando Turrietta, 17, of 50 Mariposa avenue, San Anselmo, asked the gang to behave, they attacked him. Turrietta is a student at Marin Catholic and was on the fiesta committee.

All four attacks were similar in nature, but assailants in only two have been identified.

The Hallinan boys' parents are touring Europe.

Coates, the manager of the bowling alley, said this is the first time violence has flared at his establishment. "I will do everything to bring this to a successful conclusion," he declared. "We won't stand for this nonsense. All students have always been well-behaved."

$500 Murder Payoff Letter Intercepted

A $500 bill mailed to a San Rafael woman as an alleged payoff for a Texas gang murder was sent back to Houston today to be used as evidence against a former San Rafael exconvict who is in Houston jail on suspicion of murder and robbery.

Houston police reported gambler John Ellis had been shot to death by robbers who escaped with $3,200 loot.

A $500 bill, taken in the robbery, was mailed by Oscar L. Wilkes, 34, to his mother-in-law, Mrs. Anna Pillus of 610 Fourth street, San Rafael.

LOOKOUT SUSPECT

According to Houston police, Wilkes is suspected of acting as lookout, while two accomplices, Frank Carmichael, 27, and Otis Hammond, 30, rifled the gambler's apartment. When Ellis came back and surprised them, the thieves shot him to death, Houston police charge.

On Saturday, Lt. P. F. Clark of Houston called San Rafael police and asked them to intercept Wilkes' letter and the $500 bill. Officer Thomas C. Cheetham learned from Postmaster Warren H. Williams that the registered letter had arrived.

OFFER OF HELP

Dist. Atty W. O. Weissich talked to Mrs. Pillus, who said she knew nothing about the Texas crime and would be glad to cooperate with Marin authorites in showing the letter to them.

But in the meantime, Wilkes, in Houston jail, agreed to have the letter returned to him unopened so That Houston officials could get undelivered. The San Rafael postmaster mailed it back to Texas.

Wilkes was convicted twice in Marin County for burglary in 1954 and 1955. He was paroled from the county jail Jan. 30, 1956, and is suspected of the burglary of the Graham Lumber Co. here a month later.

Two Hot Issues Await Council In Belvedere

Two thorny problems await the Belvedere City Council at its meeting at 8 o'clock tonight in the community hall.

One is the proposed lease of 200 tideland acres to the Audubon Society for a wildlife refuge.

The second is a protest resolution from the Belveder Fire Department concerning division of land adjoining the firehouse.

The city council at its May meeting decided, after lengthy debate, to accept the recommendation of its planning commission study committee, headed by commission chairman George Goddard, to assign a disputed strip of land 20 feet north of the community hall-firehouse partly to the fire department and partly to the parks and recreation commission for park development.

PROTEST FILED

But the firemen's association, meeting May 13, drew up a resolution protesting the division unless adequate facilities were provided for a hose drying yard. The present hose drying yard is in the portion of the strip pre-empted by the parks commission.

While Stanley Dick, president of the firemen's association, said the firemen are "not trying to stir up any community dissension," it was obvious from comments of other members that tempers were running hot over the matter.

CONSTRUCTION NEEDED

One association member said the present yard was adequate because it was protected, but moving the yard to another portion of the city's two-acre property would necessitate paving a driveway and building a sheltered spot for the hoses.

The Aububon Society's proposed 50-year lease on city-owned tidelands has come up for frequent discussion in council meetings over a two-year period. An adjoining 350 acres owned by the county is already under lease to the society. But Belvedere Councilmen have expressed reluctance to relinquish city rights for 50 years, believing they can best preserve open waterfrontage by ordinance.

Lung Cancer Will Kill 1 Smoker In 10

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — One out every 10 heavy smokers will die of lung cancer, odds only slightly better than those offered by Russian roulette.

That was the report today of the director of the California Department of Public Health. In an article written for the June issue of "California's Health," Dr. Malcolm H. Merrill declared that "the evidence has become conclusive that cigarette smoking is an important causative factor in lung cancer."

He had words of cheer, too. Studies have shown that it helps to quit smoking. "Those who had been cigarette smokers and stopped, definitely reduced their risk of dying from lung cancer," Dr. Merrill declared.

10-YEAR STUDY

After a 10-year study which considered occupational factors and air pollution as well as smoking, "the weight of evidence with regard to cigarette smoking as a cause of lung cancer is now so great the department must bring the matter to the attention of the public," he said.

Here are some of the facts Merrill detailed in his article:

Lung cancer is now the leading cause of cancer deaths among men in California. During 1957, a total of 2,626 died in this state from lung cancer, and "the number will be even greater for 1958 when the figures are all compiled."

The lung cancer death rate per 1,000 California men has increased from 11.2 in 1940 to 21.9 in 1950 and 33.4 in 1957.

WOMEN'S RATE

The death rate for women from lung cancer also has increased somewhat.

Heavy cigarette smokers have at least 20 times greater chance of suffering lung cancer than non-smokers. These and other studies have shown that the heavier the cigarette smoking, the heavier the lung cancer. Even light smoking, less than half a pack a day, carries a definite risk of lung cancer.

"It now appears that one in 10 heavy cigarette smokers will die of lung cancer, odds approaching those of Russian roulette," Dr. Merrill noted. (Russian roulette is a thrill game played by placing a single bullet in the cylinder of a revolver, spinning the cylinder, then placing the gun pointing at the temple and pulling the trigger. The odds are one in six the bullet will be in position to fire. If it doesn't fire, you win the game.)

EVIDENCE AMASSED

Chemical and experimental animal evidence is being amassed to support to conclusion that cigarettes cause lung cancer, Dr. Merrill went on.

Cigarette smoke contains substances which have been identified as producing cancer when applied to the skin of animals. But the exact sub-

Coastal fog and low clouds, associated with the season, can be expected.

Memorial Day Traffic Toll Worst Ever

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Speeding, careless motorists turned a carefree weekend into the blackest two-day Memorial Day Holiday in history.

Slaughter on the nation's highways mounted far above the previous record of 251 persons killed in a 54-hour Memorial Day holiday in 1953.

The death toll also climbed far over the National Safety Council's pre-holiday estimate that 260 would die in traffic tangles.

A United Press International count at 12:30 p.m. EDT showed at least 300 killed in highway accidents. An additional 101 drowned and 63 others died in miscellaneous accidents for an overall total of 464.

California recorded the heaviest toll on the highways with 27 dead. Ohio counted 22 killed, New York 20 and Tennessee 14.

The National Safety Council blamed the record slaughter on "extremely heavy travel and a rash of multiple death accidents."

The council, which had hoped one of the most intensive police crackdowns on motorists in history would hold down the toll, called the figures "tragic and shocking."

"The toll offers a grim challenge to everyone concerned with highway safety to step up the unending efforts to hold down accidents despite steadily mounting traffic," the safety council said. "We can only hope the shock of this toll will be reflected in an improved record the rest of the year."

North Dakota authorities debated whether to include in their state totals of deaths of Mrs. Hazel Condon, 39, Toronto, Ont., and he son Paul, 21. Their car went into a skid on the United States side of the border near Maida, N. D., and crashed 200 feet inside Canada.

Boy, 4, With Matches Sets Hub Garage Afire

A house just outside the city limits of San Anselmo was damaged extensively Saturday afternoon by a fire blamed on a small boy playing with matches.

Fire, smoke and water damage was estimated at between $6,000 and $8,000 by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rene Abert, owners of the two-story residence at 311 San Francisco avenue. The attached garage was gutted.

The Alberts were visiting in Covelo, Mendocino County, when the fire occurred. The tenants of their downstairs apartment, Mrs. Catherine Wessel and her two small children, fled the house as San Anselmo firemen arrived.

The blaze was nearly under control when Marin County firemen, led by Asst. Chief Louis Bloom, reached the scene in three trucks. One truck was dispatched by the San Anselmo department.

Firemen said a 4-year-old boy accidentally touched off the blaze while playing with matches in the Aberts' garage with a group of neighborhood children.

Heat from the garage fire scorched the walls and furnishings in Mrs. Wessel's apartment on the first floor and the Aberts' kitchen directly above. Firemen had to chop through the walls in several places. Smoke damage throughout the house was severe.

Mrs. Abert, employed by the San Rafael Police Department as a matron, and her husband, a salesman for Colonial Bakeries, returned yesterday morning after being notified of the fire. They have moved in with friends. Mrs. Wessel and her children are staying with her mother.

It was the second house fire in the San Anselmo area in a 24-hour period. A Friday night blaze did $12,000 damage to the William Kahn residence at Prospect and Barber streets.

Planners Again Deadlocked On Marinwood Land Use

The voters were different but the vote was the same, and the county planning commission again today failed to get anywhere with a solution to Marinwood's problem of recreational vs. commercial areas.

The planners, taking their second vote on a motion by Commissioner Niels Schultz Jr. to parcel out the recreation and business areas, voted 3-2 in favor of the motion—not enough to pass it as a two-thirds vote is required.

They voted the same way two weeks ago, with Commissioners Dr. William Upton and Margaret Azevedo opposed and James Cuzner not voting. Today, Mrs. Azevedo was absent but Cuzner joined in the "No" vote.

The commission finally continued the matter to 9 a.m. July 20, but indicated faint hope of ever reaching agreement on any solution.

Schultz' motion proposed that one acre be taken from a planned five-acre commercial area, and a 1.8-acre church site nearby be relocated, with the 2.8 acres thus gained to be devoted to recreational uses.

The Marinwood Assn. has asked that the entire commercial area, plus 10 acres planned for apartments, be turned over to recreation. Hoytt Enterprises, Marinwood developers, have proposed locating the five-acre commercial area northeast of the intersection of Lucas Valley and Miller Creek roads, with recreation areas strung along Miller Creek.

Ex-Grid Coach Named Bolinas Principal

Richard A. (Dick) Miller, 35-year-old mathematics teacher at Redwood High School and former head football coach at Tamalpais High School, was selected over the weekend to become principal of Bolinas School, announced Gene W. McDaniel, chairman of the Bolinas School District board.

He succeeds David Probert, who resigned to continue his studies.

Miller, a graduate of University of California at Berkeley, came to Tamalpais High School in 1952 from Mt. Diablo High School as mathematics teacher and assistant football coach. He was head football coach at Tam in 1955, '56, and '57. Last year, he transferred to Redwood High School to be fulltime mathematics teacher.

Miller and his wife and three children live at 316 Tennessee avenue in Tamalpais Valley.

The appointment is effective July 1.

Private Eye Jailed For Shoplifting

A Mill Valley man, identified as a private investigator, was jailed yesterday noon on suspicion of shoplifting about $2.50 worth of items from Brice Brothers Market in Bel Aire.

William Roach Gilbert, 49, of 144 Reed boulevard, was in jail today for petty theft in lieu of $250 bail.

Walter William Brice, owner and manager of the market, said Gilbert put a pack of blue cheese and package of boiled ham inside his shirt and walked out after paying for other items. Brice stopped Gilbert as he walked out of the store and called the sheriff.

Debate Over Strauss Gets Still Hotter

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate began warm-up debate today on the controversial nomination of Lewis L. Strauss to be commerce secretary. The issue was getting hotter.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen checked with the White House today and said there was no indication President Eisenhower would withdraw the appointment.

Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-N. M.), one of Strauss' strongest adversaries, had predicted yesterday that either the President would withdraw the nomination or that the Senate would vote it down.

Formal debate on the issue is scheduled to begin on Thursday. The House Commerce Committee approved the nomination by a vote of 9 to 8.

Sen. Gale McGee (D-Wyo.) opened the warm-up debate today with a third attack on Strauss. He said the former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) made "a brazen attempt to hoodwink" the commerce comittee.

McGee referred to statements made by Strauss concerning a letter received from the attorney general's office while he headed the AEC. The senator said Strauss made conflicting statements about the letter.

Attendance Rises At Muir Woods

Visitor attendance at Muir Woods National Monument over Memorial Day weekend was up about 17 per cent compared with last year, according to Park Supt. Frederick M. Martischang. He reported 5,776 visitors for the two days.

Martischang also reported that alertness of a ranger yesterday afternoon stopped a potential fire when he discovered a small patch of ground cover smoldering alongside a trial. Martischang said that it was apparently started from a cigarette discarded by a careless visitor.

He celebrated solemn high mass yesterday assisted by Rev. John Quinn of Concord and Rev. John Wagner of Richmond. Rev. Daniel McAllister of St. Raphael's Church in San Rafael preached the sermon.

Following the mass, a reception was held for Father Sullivan, attended by about 150 guests.

Gov. Long Reported Acting Violently

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP)—Louisiana's Gov. Earl K. Long, 63, his health broken under the strain of office, was in a psychiatric clinic here today.

Indications from his family were that he would be away from his office for considerable time. He was flown here after some tantrum-like outbursts before his legislature.

Reports of his condition at John Sealy Hospital were conflicting. Dr. John B. Truslow, the hospital's administrator, said the governor was merely under nursing care while doctors continued examinations.

SPECIAL CARE

The Galveston Daily News quoted an unnamed "reliable source" as saying Long had "a couple of violent spells" yesterday and was under care of two male nurses in a private room.

In Baton Rouge, Lt. Gov. Lether Frazer took over as acting governor, amid a swirl of statehouse repercussions to Long's dramatic exodus.

His nephew, Sen. Russell B. Long (D-La.) appeared before a stormy legislative session last night to explain that the governor's health had broken down under the strain of office.

The senator, son of the late Louisiana political leader Huey P. Long, said his uncle may be away "for a considerable period of time."

BURDENS OF OFFICE

"The duties and burdens of his office have been more than he could stand," the senator said.

The governor slipped out of the state Saturday, aboard a National Guard plane, to enter the Texas hospital.

In the week before, he had twice rocked legislative chambers with emotional diatribes against his political foes, name-calling and shouted boasts.

GOV. EARL K. LONG
His health broken

Opponents of Long, lord of the bayou country like his brother Huey before him, have pointed out that the Louisiana constitution permits removal of a governor if he is incapacitated by illness.

They viewed his flight as a maneuver to block his removal, since with Frazar already acting as governor, they might face more trouble in trying to oust Long.

Labrador Air Base Far Cry From War Days

GOOSE BAY, Labrador (AP) — This glittering air base with its aluminum-trimmed living quarters, ice rinks and swimming pools is a far cry from the make shift field that greeted wartime bomber ferrying crews in 1942.

Now, as then, the U.S. and Royal Canadian Air Forces are based on opposite sides of the airfield.

The RCAF maintains the network of 9,000 and 11,000-foot runways and mans most of the base radar facilities.

The USAF unit is under the Strategic Air Command and its commitments through scores of KC97 tanker planes are to keep SAC's airborne B47s and B25s fueled.

Interception and protection is also the USAF's role at Goose Bay. Based here is a squadron of 640 m.p.h. F89 Scorpions equipped with Falcon air-to-air missiles.

The Goose Bay perimeter has some 18,000 residents. More than half live on the American side.

Also quartered in Goose Bay are teachers, Army Service Corps personnel, a seven-man Royal Canadian Mounted Police detachment, a Newfoundland provincial magistrate, and employees of the Hudson's Bay Co., an oil company and the Canadian Broadcasting Co.

Two morale boosters are the local radio and TV stations. The radio station is operated by the RCAF and broadcasts daily from 7 a.m. to midnight. The TV station broadcasts from the American quarters with American personnel, but it presents a cross section of Canadian programming, all of it filmed and flown in.

Airmen are allowed to ship in their own cars and there are hundreds on each side of the base.

MISS ILLINOIS, THE SMARTY—Suzanne I. Johnson of Chicago was graduated summa cum laude (with highest honors) from Augustana College in Rock Island, Ill., today. Saturday night she was named Miss Illinois, competing as Miss Moline. She ranked second among graduates. (AP Wirephoto)

Improve Home With 3 Types Of Lighting

Learn how to use the three basic kinds of lighting, and you can add greatly to the sparkle and attractiveness of your home.

The basic types, according to the American Home Lighting Institute, are:

1. Background lighting, provided by fixtures that bounce light off the ceiling, walls, and light-colored draperies.

2. Pool lighting, provided by fixtures that concentrate light on a small area. This is the light provided for reading, or above the front door, or on kitchen counters.

3. Accent lighting, provided by reflections, pierced fixture shades, or by narrow spotlight beams.

"Every living area in the home should use a mixture of these three types of lighting," the institute suggests. "One type alone is boring and unglamorous."

In a living room, for example, you can achieve background lighting by installing a fluorescent valance or cornice over the window wall and on the wall opposite. This will bathe the room in soft general lighting.

Add pool lighting with hanging fixtures over sofa end tables or a corner table.

For charm lighting, highlight a favorite painting with a ceiling spotlight, or light up a bookcase holding art objects.

Bedrooms, dining rooms, even kitchens should be lighted with varying proportions of the basic lighting types.

State Forest Fire Condition Critical

LOS ANGELES (AP) — California's brush and timber lands lie bone dry, ready to burst into flames at the first spark. The winter just ended was the driest in a generation.

The state Division of Forestry said 289 fires broke out on land under its jurisdiction from January through April, compared with 35 for the same period last year.

"The people of California can expect one of the most critical forest fire seasons on record for 1959, if these early season conditions are any indication," State Forester Francis H. Raymond predicted.

NEW TRICKS

Firemen up and down the state are issuing warnings urging care. That's not all. They've some new tricks ready for trial this year in the ceaseless battle against fire's devastation.

Here are some samples:

Operation fuel break. This involves breaking up large areas of brush into smaller, easier-to-manage units. It's done by hacking out more, and extra-wide, fire breaks.

The "heli-attack." This one is ready in Angeles National Forest. Supervisor Richard F. Droege has set up a 'copter base at Chilao Flats where crews will fly men to points inaccessible by jeep or afoot.

LAYS FIRE HOSE

"The 'copter is rigged to lay 1000 feet of fire hose in 90 seconds," he says. "It's done by laying hose in accordion folds on a portable tray that hooks onto the bottom of the 'copter."

Another innovation is use of bentonite, instead of borate, as the fire-retarding element in water dropped on hot spots by bombing planes.

Bentonite is a form of clay that when mixed with water puts a slimy coat on whatever it touches.

Deputy State Forester James K. Mace says: "It holds a great deal of water, and when it hits the leaves and twigs it actually plasters itself on and hold the water there, insulating the foliage against heat."

COMING THING

Aerial warfare seems to be the coming thing.

Droege says his helicopters will be equipped to drop bentonite in plastic bags on hot spots — "They're small, but they're very effective."

He adds:

"We have some other specialized equipment for use with the 'copter, including a portable pump and small tank of water that can be carried out for use on the ground.

"Then we have special padded fire suits for the men to wear. A 'copter can hover just above the brush level and a man can drop down and cut a heliport out of the brush. This speeds the whole operation because the' copter doesn't have to search for a clear spot to land.

SMOKE JUMPERS

In the central Sierra, inaccessible smokes and forest fires may be attacked with more frequency from the air by smoke jumpers and air tankers carrying a borate mixture to smother flames.

Major effort is bolstering the aerial tanker program.

Says Droege:

"We're trying to get the tanker program lined up so we'll have planes on call at all times for borate drops—ready to go when fires hit. Training sessions for pilots are going on right now.

"Chino Airport will be our base, and we've lined up other airports at Goleta and Palmdale. The Forest Service owns two planes and is contracting for others."

OTHER TANKERS

The state also has tankers, two operating out of San Diego County and two out of Riverside County.

The U.S. Forest Service already has strengthened its crews. And the state Division of Forestry is manning its stations at full strength earlier than usual.

Fire prevention patrolmen have traveled hundreds of miles contacting cabin owners and resort operators, telling them to get all hazards cleaned up in advance of the critical period. When's that? Any day the weather is hot and dry.

CANCER

stances in the smoke have not been isolated.

In the lungs of persons who have died from causes other than cancer, cell changes have been found on autopsy which are considered early stages of lung cancer. These changes were found more frequently in the lungs of smokers than of non-smokers.

Do filters help eliminate the dangers? "It is possible that they remove some of the offending substances," the public health director declared.

SUBSTANCE UNKNOWN

"However, they are not know to make cigarette smoking safe. The specific chemical substance in cigarette smoke which is mainly responsible for lung cancer is still not definitely enough known to be confident that it is removed by filters."

Merrill also warned that cigarette smoking may also be involved in coronary heart disease. Analysis by the state staff of 12 different studies, two of them conducted by the state Department of Public Health, shows a "consistent association" of cigarette smoking with coronary heart disease. "The full significance is not clear in this stage of research," he declared.

The state is continuing its studies of the cause of lung cancer because cigarette smoking is "clearly but one cause of the disease." Further studies are being made of air pollution and occupational conditions.

status quo there and permit a summit meeting.

Informed sources said the West intended to reply this afternoon to Gromyko's Saturday attack on broadcasting and intelligence operations in West Berlin.

Gromyko specifically condemned the Radio in the American Sector (RIAS), the U. S. government-financed voice of freedom beamed to East Germany.

The informed sources said the United States will firmly rebuff any attempt to close down the RIAS transmitters in any Berlin interim truce.

San Rafael Council Has Short Agenda

San Rafael City Council may have one of the shortest meetings in a long time tonight at 8 o'clock.

Only five items are on the agenda, most of them expected to take only a few minutes each.

One is a resolution to ask the Bureau of Census to get a structural survey along with the population count for the 1960 census. Others include an ordinance to set the San Rafael Canal freeway lines, a report on the leasing of city property next to the corporation yard, now occupied by General Petroleum Corp, sales of tax delinquent properties in San Rafael, and refund of $22.80 erroneous assessment.

A San Quentin guard's wife and 7-month-old daughter are missing from their home at House 16, San Quentin Village.

Spinal Defects Termed Overlooked Illness Cause

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Have you tried everything for your aches and pains and still found no cure? The reason you continue to suffer may be an overlooked cause of illness.

Recently, for example, German medical men reported spinal defects in 86 of 100 ulcer patients. These doctors also reported remarkable recoveries of health when the spinal defects were corrected.

Chiropractors, for many years, have been calling attention to spinal defects in persons with ulcers, heart trouble, arthritis and many other ailments.

What is the relationship between the spine and health? All cells, organs and muscles are controlled by the nervous system. The spine protects the nerves as they flow from the brain to various parts of the body.

A spine that is out of line often pinches vital nerves as they branch out through spinal openings.

Chiropractors are specialists in correcting spinal defects and should be consulted at least once a year.

For additional information on Chiropractic care (Palmer Method) write Dr. Robert W. Pearce at 1628 Fifth avenue in San Rafael, or address a card or letter to Dr. R. W. Pearce in care of Independent-Journal Box 725, or call GL 3-6201. Adv.

S. F. ELEMENTARY SCHOOL RUINED BY FIRE

Jefferson Elementary School at the corner of 19th avenue and Irving streets in San Francisco burns despite efforts of firemen, 21 of whom were injured in the blaze yesterday morning. The school was ruined, but its students went back to classes today anyway, spread out among other city schools during the final two weeks of the current year. Damage was estimated at $300,000. S. F., Milwaukee Open Crucial Series

MILWAUKEE (AP)—San Francisco's Giants, back in striking distance of first place, open a four-game series tonight against the leading Milwaukee Braves.

The Giants are 2½ games off the Braves' pace.

Each has won three games from the other, the Giants winning two of three here early in May and the Braves taking two of three at San Francisco in a series that ended May 20.

San Francisco chipped a half-game away from the Braves' lead yesterday by trimming the Chicago Cubs 6-3 while the Braves were splitting a double-header with Philadelphia.

Giant Manager Bill Rigney credits his front-line pitchers, plus the improved play of shortstop Andre Rodgers, with keeping the club in contention.

The hitting is less potent than last season although there are three men with averages of better than .300 — Willie Mays (.339), Orlando Cepeda (.318) and Leon Wagner (.317). Wagner has not been effective, however, against Brave pitching.

Johnny Antonelli struck out 11 Cubs in the last game while registering his seventh victory against two defeats. He has a 2.93 earned run average.

Sam Jones, who has a 4-5 record and a 3.97 ERA, goes tonight against Joey Jay, 2-3. Jones is 1-1 against Milwaukee and Jay is 1-1 against San Francisco.

Lefty Mike McCormick, who struck out 11 Cubs Saturday, is 3-3 and has a 3.39 ERA. Stu Miller, the National League's ERA champ last season at 2.47, is now 2.32 and has a 3-0 record.

Antonelli had a five-hitter going when he loaded the bases on two walks and a single in the ninth, Miller, in relief, gave up a single to Dale Long but got Tony Taylor to ground out to Cepeda, ending the rally.

Antonelli hit a three-run double and Bob Schmidt got his fourth homer.

The Giants have made 50 errors, high for the league. Rodgers made 10 in his first 19 games, but only one in the last 22.

The 6 foot 3 ex-cricket player from the Bahamas has an arm that shoots bullets to first. His improvement in the field hasn't been matched at the plate. Rodgers leads the Giants in strikeouts, 31, and is hitting .236 with six homers and 15 runs batted in.

GRAB BAG DOUBLE — Bobby Thomson, Chicago Cubs center fielder, grabs bag after second inning double to left centerfield in game against the San Francisco Giants yesterday. Daryl Spencer, Giants second baseman, is unable to apply the tag as umpire Ed Sudol sets to call the play. Thomson drove in teammate Ernie Banks who had doubled before him. (AP Wirephoto)

Pirates Close In On Pennant Chase

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

It has been a year and two days since Roy Face lost a ball game. The Pittsburgh relief ace picked up his seventh victory of 1959 yesterday while the Pirates were closing in on the National League leaders with a double victory over Cincinnati.

Face lost to Milwaukee, May 30, 1958. He won five last year and seven this year for a 12-0 record. During that period he has appeared in 61 ball games. No wonder Manager Danny Murtaugh insists he has the best bullpen man in baseball.

It was Face's three innings of shutout pitching that helped the Pirates pull out a wild 14-11 second game with Cincinnati after the Pirates had won the opener 6-2.

The Pirates thrust last winter's deal down the throats of the Reds as Smoky Burgess and Don Hoak, traded to Pittsburgh by Cincinnati, each hit three home runs. Bob Skinner contributed a pair, including a grand slammer, in the frantic second game.

While the Pirates continued to move up after their sorry start, both the second-place San Francisco Giants and fourth place Los Angeles Dodgers also closed in an Milwaukee. The Giants turned back Chicago 6-3 and the Dodgers nipped St. Louis 5-3 while the Braves were splitting two with the last-place Phils.

At the close of the holiday weekend, the Braves led the Giants by 2½ games, the Pirates by 4½ and the Dodgers by 5 games.

Robin Roberts shut out the Braves with four hits, 6-0, in the opener, his first complete game since April 22. It was his 209th major league triumph.

TIES HUBBELL

Warren Spahn moved up to tie Hall of Famer Carl Hubbel with 253 National League victories by throwing a four-hitter at the Braves while winning 2-1.

Two Dodger pitchers, Sandy Koufax and Danny McDevitt whiffed 14 Cardinals and St. Louis pitchers turned in nine strikeouts. The two-club total of 23 tied a National League record.

Roberts bested Lew Burdette in the first game at Milwaukee where 28,590, largest crowd at County Stadium since opening day, saw the two active N.L. pitchers with the most victories—Roberts and Spahn. Spahn got all the help he needed when Wes Covington hit a two-run homer off Ray Semproch in the first. The lone Phil run off Spahn was a pinch homer by Gene Freese, his fifth of the year.

MAJORS DRAW 323,778 FANS OVER WEEKEND

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Major league baseball drew a total of 323,778 paid to the two-day holiday weekend program. The National League led with 171,536 to the American's 152,242.

Saturday's total attendance of 170,337 bettered Sunday's total of 153,441.

Only two double-headers were played in the National League over the weekend, both on Sunday. The American had all double-headers on Saturday and all singles Sunday.

The weekend's largest crowd was 28,994 for a night game at Los Angeles against the Chicago Cubs Saturday. Milwaukee had 28,590 for a twin bill with Philadelphia. The largest American League turnout was the 27,706 at Detroit on Sunday.

Los Angeles reported 56,579 Sunday but that included 31,750 children admitted free.

Tiburon Tops S. F. Club, 5-3

Bob Sapp slammed a double and two singles to lead the Tiburon Pelicans to a 5-3 triumph over Gateway Motors of San Francisco yesterday — the southern Marin semi-pro team's second win in as many tries.

Ken Anderson also contributed a double to the Tiburon attack while veterans Hal Kelly and Fred DeMartini shared pitching honors. Kelly, making a comeback on the mound after a period of retirement, went the first six innings, giving up just one unearned run. Lefty DeMartini went the final three frames.

JACK HANLEY'S REPORT

Braves Confident Of Winning Flag Again

By JACK HANLEY
I-J Correspondent

MILWAUKEE, Fred Haney, whose Braves meet the Giants tonight in the first game of another "crucial" series, is a popular manager not only in Milwaukee but around the entire National League circuit.

His easy manner is at one and the same time charming and disarming. It has a tendency to lull an opponent into a pleasant, soporific stupor.

Normally, Haney doesn't talk about the other teams. He does not analyze them in public print. He usually reserves his judgments for his own benefit and that of his players.

However, a couple of weeks ago after the Braves whipped the Giants two straight games in Seals Stadium, Haney relaxed his rule—just enough to reveal what he actually does think of the Giants.

"This is a tremendous Giant club," he said. "It has all the elements of coming greatness. But baseball is a game in which there is no substitute for experience.

"Give the Giants another year. Better still, give them two more years. Then they'll be ready for a shot at the World Series."

That is a typically gracious Haney statement with which it is difficult to find fault. Even a member of the Giant team or a Giant fan might be lulled into a senseless sleep by it.

IT IMPLIES, however, that the Giants are not sufficiently dry behind the ears yet to win a pennant, that is, sophomores like Orlando Cepeda, Jimmy Davenport, Bob Schmidt, Leon Wagner, Willie Kirkland, Andre Rodgers and perhaps others.

It also implies that Haney and his Braves entertain no serious doubt about the outcome of the 1959 pennant race. They haven't even bothered to take down last year's World Series dressing room decorations and the stars above the names of each Brave cubicle. The inference, of course, is "we'll use 'em again this year."

Haney's statement about the Giants somehow is reminiscent of the way those wise old residents of New England handle delicate situations.

SUCH A delicate situation occured between a New Hampshire farmer bouncing along in his squeaky old jalopy, and the New York slicker driving a spanking new Cadillac.

The farmer, coming to an arterial intersection failed to observe the full-stop sign negligently ploughing through it and smack into the New Yorker's car just off a Fifth Avenue show room.

Viewing the mangled fender of his new car, the slicker naturally voiced a few choice phrases at the farmer, quietly stepping from his beat-up jalopy.

"Sure is a cold night," twanged the farmer. "Would you care for a nip while we're waiting?"

"Don't mind if I do," agreed the slicker, his anger considerably mollified by such a friendly greeting. And he accepted a second and a third nip before noticing that the farmer didn't have one yet.

"Won't you have one yourself?" he asked, somewhat ashamed.

And the farmer replied:

"No, I think I'll just wait for the police to arrive."

THE ONLY moral to the story, if there is one, is that the Giants hear Haney sweet-talking in San Francisco but in Milwaukee it is different and if there is any doubt about that just listen to the following in the official Milwaukee Braves Yearbook:

"Fred's 1959 goal is to provide Milwaukee fans with a third consecutive pennant — a feat that has not been accomplished in the National League since Billy Southworth piloted St. Louis to wins from 1942-44."

Snead Leads Field Of U. S. Open Qualifiers

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Golfing maestro Sam Snead—still seeking to add the U.S. Open championship to his numerous golfing laurels—faces the rigors of final sectional qualifying today along with 476 other hopefuls.

Snead joins such other luminaries as newly crowned British Amateur champion Deane Beman; Masters champion Art Wall Jr.; Bill Hyndman, who lost to Beman in the British Amateur final, and Arnold Palmer, one of the leading performers along the pro circuit, in the battle to get into the tournament proper.

This is the second round of eliminations for the main event at the Winged Foot Club, Mamaroneck, N. Y., June 11-13. Only 131 spots remain open for the nearly 500 golfers who will be competing at 13 locations around the country. Twelve will be held today. The 13th at Atlanta—was put off until tomorrow because of rain.

The two largest groups will be at Springfield, N.J., where Hyndman will be vying for a spot, and at Cincinnati, where the touring pros will shoot over the 36-hole route. The class of the field, however, appears at Washington, D.C., where Snead, Beman, Wall and Palmer are entered.

Seven former Open winners are among the 19 on the exemption list and already have their places in the Open's championship flight.

Heading the exempt pack are the last five champions — Tommy Bolt, Dick Mayer, Cary Middlecoff, Jack Fleck and Ed Furgol—along with Ben Hogan and Julius Boros.

Hogan and Boros earned their positions by being among the low 10 scorers and ties in last year's Open. Also included in that group are Gary Player, Gene Littler, Walt Burkemo, Bob Rosburg, Jay Hebert, Dick Metz, Don January, Frank Stranahan and Tommy Jacobs.

MILLIONS OF AMERICANS ARE IN DANGER!
Yes, millions still have not had any polio shots. They are unprotected as the 1959 polio season approaches. What about you?
Polio isn't licked yet! In fact, cases of paralytic polio—the worst kind—increased slightly in 1958 over 1957 among people not vaccinated.
Remember—polio strikes all ages. Play safe. Your neighbor's polio shots will not protect you. See your doctor or health department NOW before it's too late.

Yanks Escape A. L. Cellar

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Yankee haters arise! The battle has not been won. The enemy is not dead. He has escaped from the American League cellar.

The Washingon chapter is to blame. They forgot to lock the basement door over the long weekend. Casey Stengel's men swept three in a row and charged into sixth place, blinking in daylight after 11 days in the dungeon.

This is blue Monday for the club members. New York shows definite signs of snapping out of it. They clobbered Washington twice on Saturday, scoring 22 runs, and won Sunday's single game 3-0 on Bill Skowron's three-run homer in the ninth and Bob Turley's two-hit pitching.

The Yanks still are four games under .500 but the league is beginning to come back to them. Cleveland, still in first place, is only six games away. The Yanks still have 112 games to play.

Charlie Maxwell did the Indians in with a three-run homer on Jim Perry's first pitch in the ninth for Detroit's 7-4 victory. Jerry Davie came through with his first complete game in the majors, a four-hitter after a wobbly start.

Cleveland held its one-game lead over Chicago because the White Sox were thumped early and late by Kansas City. The A's knocked out Early Wynn while scoring five runs in the second and added four more in the sixth on Preston Ward's grand slam homer for a 9-1 decision.

Baltimore dropped Boston into last place, five percentage points behind Washington, when Hal "Skinny" Brown beat the Red Sox 2-1. Brown staggered through the first two innings and settled down to pitch a four-hitter. He foiled Ted Williamsc' bid for his 2,500th big league hit. Williams went hitless in three official trips.

Camilo Pascual did his very best to keep the Yanks in last place, matching Turley's two-hit shutout for the first eight innings. There were two out in the ninth when Mickey Mantle doubled to right center. After Yogi Berra was walked intentionally, Skowron lined Pascual's pitch into the left center bleachers for his eighth home run.

Turley, still far behind his 1958 pace, recovered from his recent wildness and walked only one. It was his fourth victory (he's lost six) and Pascual's fifth defeat.

Maxwell's homer in Detroit broke a 4-4 tie. Davie had opened the ninth with a single off Mike Garcia, and was sacrificed to second. Perry walked Harvey Kuenn intentionally before Maxwell hit his ninth homer.

Whitey Herzog's single with the bases loaded and Dick Williams' double each drove in two runs for the A's in the big second inning. Ward's grand slammer came off Barry Latman who replaced Wynn in the second. Ned Garver, who hasn't lost to Chicago since July 4, 1957, won his fourth with a four-hitter.

Baltimore left 15 on base in beating Boston. Al Pilarcik's double followed by Willie Tasby's single broke a 1-1 tie in the sixth. Ike Delock was the loser.

Neves Hurt, May Never Ride Again

INGLEWOOD (AP) — Jockey Ralph Neves, once declared dead after a 1938 racing spill, today was again cheating the dark horseman.

Doctors say the rail-runing daredevil, who underwent brain surgery after another spill Saturday, has a good chance to recover.

But whether the "Portuguese Pepperpot" will ride again is doubtful, doctors say.

Neves, 41, suffered a fractured skull and two broken vertebrae when his mount, Rhin, fell in the third race at Hollywood Park

Neves regained consciousness in the track infirmary and doctors thought at first his injuries were confined to the broken vertebrae. Then, when Neves became drowsy doctors discovered the skull fracture and a blood clot on the brain.

"Ralph's chances are about 4 to 1 in his favor for recovery," said Dr. Joseph Orr, one of the neurosurgeons who removed the clot during a 2½-hour operation.

Neves' 1938 "death ride" at Bay Meadows has become legendary. He was aboard Fannikins when the horse crossed his legs and tumbled into the middle of the pack. The track physician, finding no pulse, sadly shook his head and said:

"He's dead."

As a matter of routine, the physician injected adrenalin into Neves' heart and a few minutes later the little rider was back on his feet. The next day he booted home four winners.

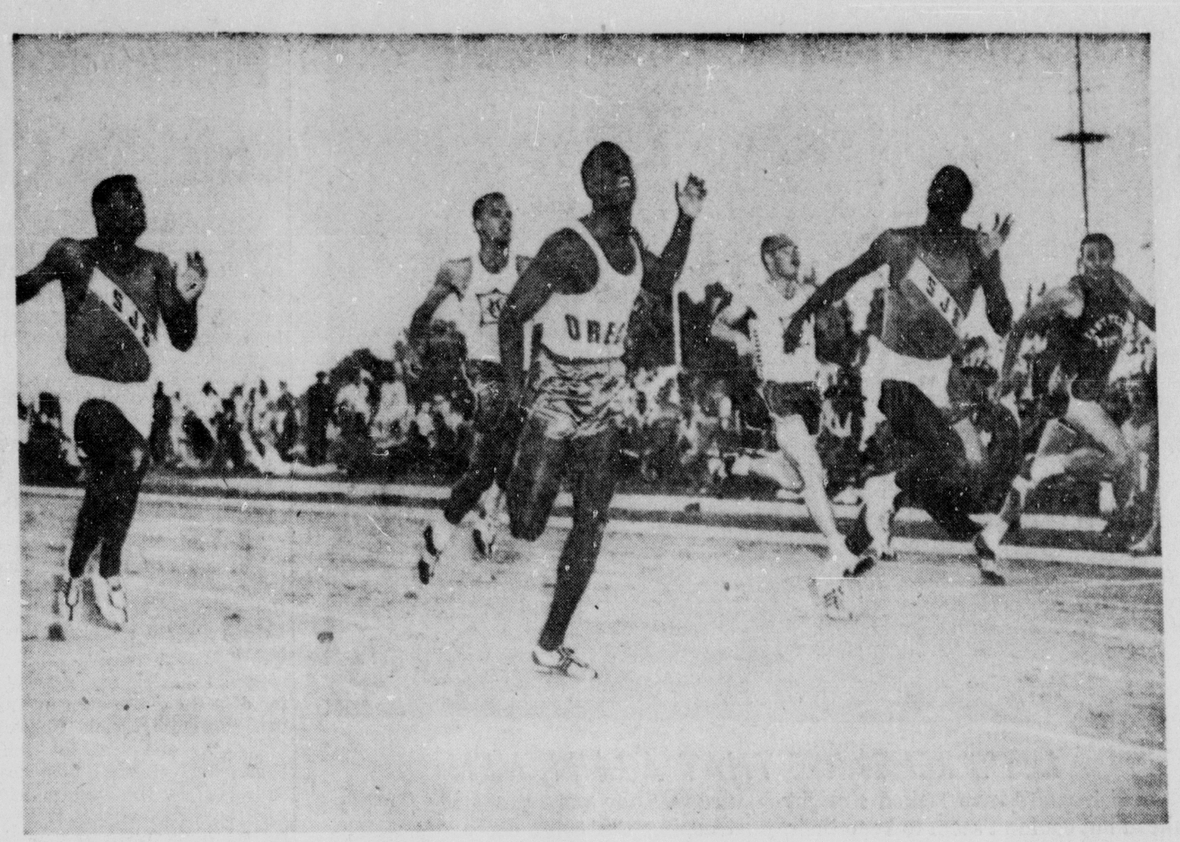
Andrews Embarks On Comeback In Oakland Tonight

OAKLAND (AP)—Paul Andrews of Buffalo, N. Y., tries a boxing comeback tonight when he meets Kolo "Duke" Sabedong of Hawaii in a heavyweight 10-rounder at Oakland Auditorium.

Andrews compiled a 32-8 record but his last outing was two years ago. He stopped 19 opponents.

Sabedong's best achievement was a one-round knockout of Reno's Howard King. His record is 13-6-1 with 10 of his victories by knockout.

Both are 28.



OREGON SOPHOMORE WINS 100 — TIES RECORD—Running in a field studded with three star sprinters who have at one time matched the record of 9.3 seconds for the 100 yard dash, Oregon sophomore Roscoe Cook, center, front, finishes first to win the century and to tie the record in the California Relays. Ray Norton, second from right, front, was second; Sid Gorton, extreme right, East Texas State, was third; Bob Poynter, left, San Jose State, was fourth; Bobby Morrow, second from left unattached, was fifth. Fourth from left, wearing glasses, is Bill Woodhouse, Abilene Christian. Said Cook: "I never dreamed I could run a 9.3." Morrow, Woodhouse and Norton, from San Jose State, all have equalled 9.3. British Say Amateur King 'Demon Golfer'

SANDWICH, England (AP)—Deane Beman, youngest Amateur to win the British Amateur golf title, gained a reputation in Britain as an ice-cool character who played the course and paid no attention to his opponents.

The 21-year-old University of Maryland student from Silver Spring, Md., defeated Bill Hyndman, 43-year-old Abington, Pa., insurance broker 3 and 2 in the final Saturday. Then both headed qualifying action in the U. S. Open.

British sportswriters described Beman as "tight-lipped," "ruthless" and even as a "demon golfer."

Sydney Spicer, writing in the London Sunday Express, said:

"Beman, small and wiry and almost expressionless whatever the situation, gave a magnificent exhibition of the short game—even by the American standards.

"He hit the ball firmly and with a penetrating flight. In every respect he is the type of ruthless competitor who makes our job of catching up with American golf so difficult."

Beman's success in the British Amateur followed a 9-3 U. S. victory over Britain in the Walker Cup at Muirfield, May 15-16.

The young Marylander, a member of the Walker Cup squad, won a singles match in that competition.

Beman was the 11th American to win the British title, first competed for in 1885.

Two No-Hitters In M.V. Little League

Mill Valley National Little League saw two no-hit, no-run games pitched in a doubleheader Saturday.

Bob Compagna accomplished the feat in the Lions' 13-0 win over the Merchants while Dave Beswick did it in the first place Realtors' 7-0 whitewashing of the Yankees.

National League standings: Realtors 7-0, Lions 5-2, Yankees 4-3, Merchants 1-5 and Giants 0-6.

American League — Tigers 7-1, Braves 6-2, Eaglets 3-5 and Indians 0-8.

MODESTO RELAYS

Texas, Oregonian Steal Spotlight

MODESTO (AP) — Oregon and Texas stole the show at the 18th annual California Relays.

Unheralded Roscoe Cook, a 20-year-old University of Oregon sophomore, surprised one of the finest sprint lineups ever assembled to win the 100-yard dash Saturday with a world record tying 9.3 seconds.

The University of Texas sprint relay team clipped a tenth of a second from the world record for the 440 yard relay. The Longhorn quartet of Wally Wilson, Eddie Southern, Hollis Gainey and Ralph Alspaugh zipped the quarter mile in 39.6 seconds, erasing the mark set here last year by Abilene Christian.

Two other Oregon runners turned in great performances. Junior Otis Davis won the 440 in 46.2 seconds, the fastest quarter mile time this year. Freshman Dyrol Burleson won the open mile with 4:06.7, matching his own record for a freshman mile, set earlier this year at the Drake Relays.

Hayes Jones, Eastern Michigan hurdler, was the only double winner, copping both hurdle events. He broke the relays record with 22.5 in the 220-yard lows and equalled the meet record with 13.6 in the 120-yard high hurdles.

In winning the century, Cook bested three men who already had tied the world record—Ray Norton of San Jose State, Olympic champ Bobby Morrow and Morrow's former teammate from Abilene Christian, Bill Woodhouse.

Cook finished a long stride in front of Norton. Norton, Sidney Garton of East Texas State and Bobby Poynter of San Jose State all were timed in 9.4. Morrow finished fifth and Woodhouse was farther back. One watch clocked Cook in 9.2.

Morrow came back strong to win the 220 in 20.5 seconds.

Norton anchored his team to second place behind the Texans as the Longhorns smashed the world record. San Jose, in that race, equalled the previous world record of 39.7.

Then, in a real thriller, a fantastic anchor leg by Norton gave San Jose a victory over Texas in the 880-yard relay. When Norton grabbed the second of two poor baton passes in the race, he was almost 10 yards behind Texas' Southern.

With the crowd of 10,120 on its collective feet and screaming, Norton overtook Southern on the turn and beat him to the tape by five yards. He was credited with an unofficial 19.8 for the 220 yard sprint, two tenths of a second better than the recognized world standard for the furlong.

Mike Peakes of Colorado captured the 880 in 1:50.2.

California's mile relay team of Stu Gould, Bob Karlsrud, Jerry Siebert and Jack Yerman set a meet record of 3:07 as the Bears nipped Texas.

For the first time in history, four pole vaulters cleared 15 feet in one meet. Don Bragg of Fort Dix, N.J., and Jim Graham of Oklahoma State tied at 15 feet 3 inches. George Mattos of Santa Clara Youth Village and Aubrey Dooley of Oklahoma State tied at 15 even.

An expected duel in the shot put didn't materialize because Southern California freshman Dallas Long and Bill Neider both came up with ailments. But world champ Parry O'Brien heaved the steel ball 61 feet 5 inches to win and Charlie Butt, a former Cal putter, entered the 60-foot club with a toss of 60-2 for second.

Al Andrews of the Southern California Striders set an American record in the hop, step and jump with 52 feet 5¼ inches, topping the mark set by Bill Sharp of Westchester (Pa.) Teachers when he went 52-1 for the U.S. Olympic team in 1956.

Olympic hammer champ Harold Connolly, now with the Striders, won his specialty with a whirling heave of 219-5½. Another Strider, Bob Voiles, won the javelin throw with 244-10.

Charley Dumas of USC took the high jump with 6-9½ and Joel Wiley of Los Angeles State won the broad jump with 26 feet 2½ inches.

WHITT SCORES 2D STRAIGHT MAJOR WIN

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Golf pro Don Whitt is in a hot streak and he's making it pay off handsomely. In six days, Whitt added $6,300 to his bankroll.

The 28-year-old Whitt from Borego Springs, Calif. captured the Kentucky Derby Open yesterday. Only last Monday, he came throug last Monday, he came through in the Memphis Open after a playoff.

Whitt's 72-hole total was 274, a stroke better than runner-up Jim Ferree playing out of Crystal River, Fla.

Dick Knight of San Diego, Calif., Ernie Vossler of Midland, Texas, Dave Ragan of Chattanooga and Doug Ford of Paradise, Fla., finished at 276 to tie for third.

Bob Goalby, the muscular Crystal River pro who led the field by five going into the last round, shot a 77 and wound up at 278.

Whitt claimed that a new mallet-head putter he bought at Hot Springs, Ark., was instrumental in his victory. He said the win at Memphis gave him immeasurable confidence.

Whitt combined rounds of 70-64-63-67 to earn first money of $2,800.

500-Mile Victory Worth $106,850 For Roger Ward

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Rodger Ward, loaded down with loot from the richest auto race ever run, will go right on competing in the world's most dangerous sport.

Ward and his car owner, Leader Cards Inc., of Milwaukee, won $106,850 in the 43rd 500-mile race Saturday. The World War II fighter pilot's take under the customary contract would be 40 per cent, $42,740.

That means Ward will be risking his neck largely for the U.S. Treasury the rest of this season—but his pretty brunette wife, Jo, says he probably would race for nothing.

"I'm going to make the rest of the USAC championship and possibly some sports car events if I can get a good car," Ward said.

His next race will be the 100-miler at Milwaukee next Sunday.

DEDICATED DRIVER

It took Ward nine attempts before he won the big pot. Only a dedicated race driver would have continued after his experience in the 1955 Memorial Day classic. His front axle broke, triggering the four-car crash that killed two-time-winner Bill Vukovich. He entered the 500 again the next year and finished eighth—his best until last Saturday.

Ward escaped injury in another sensational crash April 4 at Daytona Beach, in a 50-mile event that followed the world's record 100-miler in which he finished second to Jim Rathmann of Miami.

Ward set a new Speedway record of 135.857 miles an hour, beating Jim Rathmann by 23 seconds or about a mile. Rathmann's 135.619 also topped Hanks' 1957 record of 135.601.

It turned out to be a four-car race and Ward got a big assist from his smooth pit crew and air jacks which were installed in his A. J. Watson-built car. He made three stops for fuel and tires in a grand total of one minute and 13 seconds.

THOMSON THIRD

Johnny Thomson of Boyertown, Pa., the fastest qualified, had to make four pit stops, broke a torsion bar spring and finished third.

Ward let Rathmann, Thomson and Pat Flaherty of Chicago, the 1956 winner, do most of the fighting for the lead in the first half of the race while he conserved his tires to save a pit stop.

Flaherty crashed into the main-stretch wall on his 163rd lap but escaped injury. Ward led the last 115 laps.

There were six mishaps, injuring two drivers and a crewman, but no fatalities.

Tony Bettenhausen finished fourth for the second straight year. Paul Goldsmith of St. Clair Shores, Mich., eliminated in the 15-car smashup last year in his first start, took fifth.

Two drivers had been killed in practice runs earlier in the month, bringing the speedway toll to 50 deaths in 50 years.

Ray Crawford, Pasadena, Calif., and Mike Magill, Haddonfield, N. J., were injured Saturday in wrecks and a crew man suffered burns when the car of Dick Rathmann, San Gabriel, Calif., caught fire in the pits. Dick suffered slight burns but declined medical aid.

Brown Choice Over Rosi In Title Fight

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Joe Brown puts his world lightweight title on the line for the seventh time Wednesday night at Washington when he faces Paolo Rosi, an Italian-born New Yorker.

Brown, a 12-5 favorite, has won 73, lost 12 and had 9 draws. Rosi is 31-4-1.

The 15-round match will be carried on network (ABC) TV.

Dick Tiger, the British Empire middleweight king, will be shown before an American audience for the first time Friday at Madison Square Garden. His opponent will be Rory Calhoun of White Plains, N. Y.

Calhoun's record is 39-7-1 to Tiger's 32-8-1.

The fight will be carried on network (NBC) radio and TV.

Rudy Sawyer hopes to qualify for a July 1 TV bout at Louisville against Rudell Stitch by whipping Benny Kid Paret of Havana tonight at St. Nicholas Arena.

Spilman 5th In State Mile Finals

Craig Spilman of College of Marin placed fifth in the mile race of the California Junior College Track and Field Championships Saturday at Modesto.

Spilman, who on the previous week won the mile and placed second in the two-mile in the Northern California Championships, was timed at 4 minutes, 24.1 seconds Saturday.

During the two-mile race he complained of stomach cramps and dropped out of competition.

Charles Clark of Santa Anna J. C. won the mile in record time of 4:12.3 and the two-mile in 9:27.9.

Rainier Celebrates

MONTE CARLO, Monaco (AP)—Prince Rainier III played the drums far into the night last night to celebrate his 36th birthday. His wife, Princess Grace, looked on indulgently.

The session was held in the select cabaret under the casino. The doors were closed to all but Rainer's party of 40.

Algerians Elect

ALGEIRS (AP) — Liberals and extreme rightwingers suffered defeat in yesterday's election of 32 members to the French Senate from Algeria.

The outcome, decided by about 6,000 appointed voters from conservative circles, was considered favorable for President Charles de Gaulle's attempts to find a representative Algerian group with which to discuss an end to the 4½-year-old nationalist rebellion.

It was the first time Algerian Moslems outweighed Frenchmen in the group.

Monkeys Observed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Able and Baker, the little monkeys rocketed into space aboard an American missle, will be kept under observation for some time to see if they develop any follow-up effects from their trip.

Scientists say the two were not hurt a bit by their 1,500-mile flight. But they want to keep the monkeys under long-term observation to make sure the radiation or weightlessness of space travel didn't cause harm that might show up later.

Stassen Mother Dies

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Elsie E. Stassen, 82, mother of Harold E. Stassen, former governor of Minnesota, died Saturday of complications resulting from a fall in her home two weeks ago.

Now She's Boss

HOLLYWOOD, (AP) — For 11 years, Mary Rushton has been a waitress at the Gourmet Restaurant.

So she bought the place yesterday—for $50,000.

Showgirl Plans Charity

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — Former showgirl Gregg Sherwood Dodge said yesterday she plans to spend the rest of her life helping unfortunate girls.

Mrs. Dodge, wife of auto heir Horace Dodge III, announced plans to build a "girls' town" in South Florida. She said the project would provide a home for "lost, frightened, abandoned girls from 10 to 18 who need care and help."

"I want to devote the rest of my life to this," she said.

Bridegroom, 17, Dead

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—A 17-year-old bridegroom was found shot to death at his home here today, a few hours after he had eloped with his young sweetheart.

Police Capt. Bob Sult said John Louis Maddox and Peggy Stroud, 16, a high school sophomore, eloped and were married Saturday. Then they returned to tell his parents.

Maddox took his bride to her home, then returned to his home.

They boy's parents said they were awakened about 1 a.m. yesterday by a loud noise. They found the youth on the floor of his bedroom, wounded in the chest. A 12-gauge shotgun was nearby.

Not Improving Any

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Eight weeks ago, George Hinton Jr., 24, shot himself in the knee while practicing fast draws with a .22 caliber target pistol.

Yesterday, still practicing, he shot himself in the foot.

Cabbie Kills Policeman

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP)—A cab driver angered because he received a ticket for speeding from a Negro policeman shot and killed him yesterday.

Police quoted Joseph D. Herring, 31, a Negro cabbie, as saying, "I'm glad he's dead and now it won't take me long to die in the gas chamber."

Police Cpl. Joe D. Massey, 44, one of the first Negro policemen hired here 12 years ago, was slain as he sat at a desk in a service station writing out a police report shortly after giving Herring the ticket. He was shot six times.

. . . And STILL Waiting

BRIXTON, England (UPI) — Michael Bylett said today he still plans to wed dark-haired Yvette Clark, 20, who left him waiting at the altar twice.

The bashful bride disappeared two weeks before a scheduled wedding ceremony April 11. Yesterday, Bylet got the bad news again — Miss Clark had vanished for the second time.

Storm Peters Out

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Tropical storm Arlene, blowing itself out in central Mississippi today, left in its path high waters across parts of Louisiana, but little wind damage.

The season's first storm, now only a poorly defined area of squally winds and rains, apparently swayed in a northeasterly direction across Mississippi.

The U.S. Weather Bureau forecast scattered showers in Mississippi and Louisiana.

The worst damage in Louisiana yesterday came from torrential rains which closed some main roads in the New Orleans area.

At Moisant International Airport, 10.92 inches of rain fell in a 24-hour period ending at 6 p.m. Sunday.

11 Killed By Train

SANTIAGO, Chile (UPI) — Eleven persons were killed and 20 injured yesterday when a train smashed into a truck carrying 41 football players and fans.

Baudouin Flies Home Today To Face 'Worst' Royal Crisis

BRUSSELS (UPI) — Belgians prepared a gigantic welcome today to demonstrate their support of King Baudouin when he flies in from the United States to one of the worst royal crisis this little nation has ever known.

A huge rift developed between palace and public during the three-week U.S. tour of the 28-year-old King and the Belgians hoped their demonstration today would close it.

The royal crisis started when the public learned unexpectedly that a Vatican wedding had been arranged for Prince Albert, the king's younger brother, and Italian Princess Paola Ruffo di Calabria.

The negotiations apparently were made secretly between the palace and the Vatican and omitted the civil ceremony required by Belgian law.

In the subsequent uproar former King Leopold and his wife, Princess Liliane, moved out of Laeken Palace, the royal home, in answer to public protest against Leopold's undue influence over his son. Neither was expected at the airport to welcome Baudouin back.

King Baudouin's palace advisers apparently learned something about public relations from the king's American tour and today he was parading through the city in an open car.

Brussels' main streets were decked with hundreds of red, black and yellow national flags. The government in an unprecedented announcement urged the public to turn out in a massive demonstration of welcome.

The king's successful tour may be the start of a new role for the young monarch. Tomorrow he brings out another American custom — the press conference.

Khrushchev Again Threatens West

LONDON (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has again coupled a threat of total destruction for the West in the event of war with a prediction of capitalism's inevitable defeat.

In a speech in the Albanian town of Vlore, Khrushchev warned last night that any attack on the Soviet bloc would be "tantamount to suicide." He said the West's "reckless" policies were hastening "the time when mankind will be able to bury capitalism deeply."

"No matter how much aging capitalism is trying to prolong its existence, it is doomed because it will be replaced by the new victorious system—Communism," Khrushchev declared.

'Horrible Atrocities' Laid To China Reds

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A congressional committee has charged Red China with "horrible atrocities," including the torture of Christians who refused to surrender their faith to Communism.

The Communists murdered 30 million people behind the bamboo curtain during the past 10 years, according to previously secret testimony made public yesterday.

The witnesses, five Christian missionaries who fled from the Reds, detailed to the House Committee on Un-American Activities alleged atrocities rivaling those of the Nazis.

Rev. Tsin-Tsai Liu, now pastor of a Baptist church in Taipei, Formosa, said Chinese Christians are sent to "self-confessing" classes to be "re-educated" by the Communists.

If the classes are not successful, he said, "physical force is used."

"They stop the noses of the people and pour water into their mouths," Liu said. "Every time the person breathes, he swallows water."

Another witness, Rev. Samuel W. S. Cheng, now a church mission leader on Formosa, said "at best" the Communists preach "modernism" in Christianity.

"They take away the divinity of Christ and point out he was a good carpenter, a good example for the working people to follow," he said.

"At the worst," he said, "They substitute Lenin the father, Stalin the son and Mao Tse-Tung the holy ghost" for the Christian trinity.

Cheng said the sister-in-law of a member of the Chinese Nationalist house of representatives was tied to five horses by the Reds.

"One horse was tied to her neck," he said, "And the other horses were tied to her arms and legs and they went in all directions.

"The biggest horse ran and it just tore her body into pieces. The blood streamed all over the public square and the people shut their eyes and cried. They could not stand to see it."

The testimony painted a grim picture of life in the communes, where family units are completely broken up, separating wives, husbands and children.

The missionaries told the committee the Chinese people are resisting the commune system by destroying livestock, burning crops and fighting from the mountains as guerrillas.

Charcoal in colonial times was made by spreading earth over burning logs to limit the supply of air.

Red China Believed Ready To Set Off Crude Atom Bomb

GENEVA (UPI) — Diplomatic sources said today Communist China is believed to have amassed enough raw material and technical knowledge to build a primitive atomic bomb.

One report circulating in official circles said Peiping may be planning a test explosion this fall.

The report was entirely unconfirmed, but it spurred Russian, American and British negotiators here to speed up their search for a way to outlaw nuclear weapon tests.

A Chinese Communist nuclear explosion would shake the present world baiance of power between East and West and expand the "nuclear club" to four—five if France also were to set off an explosion.

One diplomat said Russia was as concerned about this as the West and may come up with something new when the Anglo-Soviet-American nuclear conference resumes here next Monday.

Announce Way To Help Drain All 8 Sinus Cavities Without Discomfort

New decongestant tablet for sinus congestion sufferers acts both to drain clogged sinus cavities and relieve distressing head pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) Announcement has been made of a new tablet development which has the remarkable ability to help drain clogged sinus cavities and thus relieve congestion and pressure. The headaches, pressure pains, stuffed-up head, nasal drip, clogged breathing—all the unrelenting symptoms the sinus sufferer knows so well—are attacked directly by improving drainage of the sinus areas.

Most remarkable of all is the fact that this is accomplished with extraordinary speed and without discomfort of any kind. This new tablet does its remarkable work internally, through the blood stream. It deposits into every drop of blood plasma a new medication which is carried to the sinus area, where it shrinks the swollen doors to the sinus cavities and helps drain away the pain-causing pressure and congestion.

The shrinking substance in this new tablet has been so successful topically in promoting drainage of the sinus cavities that it is now prescribed more widely by doctors than any material for this purpose. This new medication is now available at drug counters without the need for a prescription under the name, Dristan® Decongestant Tablets. Dristan Tablets cost only 98¢ for a bottle of 24 tablets. Buy and use Dristan Tablets with the absolute guarantee that they will drain away pain-causing pressure and congestion of the sinus cavities, relieve the pain and distress, or purchase price will be refunded.

Screen Star Denies Story She's Broke

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Screen star Joan Crawford denied today persistent rumors she is broke and accepting any available movie roles to keep the wolf from the door.

Since the death of her husband, Pepsi-Cola executive Alfred Steele, last April 19, the one-time glamour girl's finances have been the subject of speculation.

To set the record straight, Miss Crawford said:

"Due to the fact that Mr. Steele's estate must go through probate, which will take about three years, I can understand that my financial status may be subject to some misinterpretation.

"By the terms of Mr. Steele's contract with the Pepsi-Cola Corp. I will receive a salary of $60,000 annually for the next five years.

"Since my election to the board of directors of that company I will receive additional compensation in an amount yet to be determined.

"I have two residences—an apartment in New York City and a home in Brentwood. Since my business interests will be mainly in New York I am planning to sell my Brentwood house. As for pictures, I intend to return to Hollywood when I am offered the kind of role I feel is best suited to my talents."

Miss Crawford arrived in filmtown last week to play a supporting role in "The Best of Everything" at 20th Century-Fox.

After a warm greeting from Miss Boyd and Judge Carlos R. Freitas, Music Chest president, Mrs. George Metcalfe, Marin County drive chairman called upon district chairmen for additional reports from their respective districts. Over $1,000 was pledged at the Report Tea, bringing the total amount subscribed to date well over the $9,000 mark.

As each district was called out, Mrs. Metcalfe announced whether or not they had exceeded last year's quota, and it was learned that 49 districts had gone "over the top."

Vista Point Information Idea Should Be Made A Reality

Last Tuesday the Marin Board of Supervisors unanimously went on record favoring erection of a tourist information center on the Vista Point at the Marin end of the Golden Gate Bridge.

We're happy to see the supervisors get behind this project.

In passing the resolution they asked the U.S. Army, the State Division of Highways, the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District and the Redwood Empire Association all to approve the project and take immediate steps to bring it into being.

The proposal is a suggestion of the Marin Visitors Bureau. Plan is to construct an appropriate tourist center, undoubtedly out of redwood, on the vista point. It would be staffed, under the plan, by the Redwood Empire Association and would be for the dissemination of free information about the wonders of the Redwood Empire. It would not be a commercial establishment and nothing would be sold.

The Marin Visitors Bureau believes it sees it as a cooperative venture in which lumber industries of the area would provide the lumber, the chambers of commerce and similar organizations provide the literature.

It's object would be to attract visitors already across the Golden Gate Bridge, farther into the Redwood Empire. So far as the uninformed visitor is concerned, there is nothing to the north. From the vista point he can't see the beauties of Marvelous Marin and the other counties of the Redwood Empire.

The idea is to have some one tell him about Mt. Tamalpais, Muir Woods, Stinson Beach, the Russian River, Clear Lake, and all the rest of the attractions.

Marin's supervisors were alert in noting that if the tourists can be attracted north, they will not only enjoy themselves, but spend money with our merchants, our motel owners, our gasoline stations, and our restaurants. Could be they'd like it so well they might even want to move here to live.

First result of the supervisors' resolution, however, was disappointing. A copy was sent to the bridge board, without who's approval the information center can not be built. The bridge directors referred the resolution to committee, the same committee where the idea already has been languishing without action for weeks and weeks.

Perhaps the resolution will help blast it out of committee. We hope so.

Meanwhile, we call upon Marin's bridge directors, to get behind the project and make it a reality.

Summer Air-Conditioning

During June, July and August when most of the rest of the country is sweltering under 90 degree temperatures, Marinites can usually read about it and even gloat a bit because they are so comfortably cool.

Indeed, some hard to please people complain about Marin's summers because they are so cool.

We often hear the words "normal westerly winds" on the radio or read them in the paper during the summer months. These are the winds which blow in over the chill Pacific waters and exert such a cooling influence on Marin's climate.

Some summer days there's entirely too much chill wind and we think unkind thoughts about our cool summers.

But when we go elsewhere and return, we are brimming over with appreciation for Marin's delightful climate.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

The 20's—An Era Of Nonsense—Were Also A Time Of Security

By RELMAN MORIN
For HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—A current trend in the book-writing trade, as you may have noticed, concerns the decade often described as the era of wonderful nonsense, the 1920s.

Books about F. Scott Fitzgerald and Aimee Semple McPherson, the great stock market crash, millions praying for Charles Lindbergh on the night he flew to Paris.

Prohibition, the gangster empires, the St. Valentine's Day massacre in Chicago, the Charleston, the Black Bottom, flappers with knee-length skirts and a fringe of beads around the equator, raccoon coats and hip flasks. Joke: "I always show up late at a party so that the gin'll have time to age."

The circus-horse beauties of the Ziegfeld Follies, Hollywood on its ear over an invention known as "the talkies," "The Green Hat," "Desire Under the Elms," . . . "Peaches" Browning . . . Great reporters writing about murder trials, and the Tennessee "monkey trial" involving schoolmaster Scopes.

The Golden Age of sports, million-dollar gates, the "long count" at Chicago, Brick Muller's 65-yard forward pass (or was it 75 yards?) in the Rose Bowl, the unparalleled athletes, Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney, Bill Tilden and Helen Wills, Bobby Jones, and Walter Hagen, Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Walter Johnson. The "four horsemen" in the Notre Dame backfield and "murder's row" in the Yankee lineup.

Well, when you put it all together in one chunk, it does sound like a pretty heady time.

But the 1920s, it seems to me, were unique for a wholly different reason.

They were years of security.

The sense of security, of course, was more shadow than substance, as events were soon to show. At the time, however, the future seemed to stretch ahead, serene and unclouded.

No war threatened. No bullets were flying. Moreover, in the Kellogg-Briand Pact and a whole tissue of treaties—too frail, alas—the great powers pledged themselves never to use war as an instrument of policy.

Airpower did not exist. The two oceans were still mighty barriers protecting America. No one dreamed of the A-bomb or the H-bomb, much less intercontinental missiles.

ON THE ECONOMIC SIDE, the skies seemed equally cloudless. A college senior looked forward to selling stocks and bonds, getting into the market in a few years, becoming a millionaire at 35. Why not? It was happening often.

What's more, you could keep your money then. The income tax was negligible. Everybody had jobs. Everybody had money. Everybody had prospects. A chicken in every pot. Two cars in every garage.

It was a fine, mellow champagne era.

AT THE VERY END of the decade, beginning with the stock market crash in the fall of 1929, all this ended. Security vanished overnight.

Yes, there was a lot of nonsense in the 1920s. It probably was the natural by-product of too much peace and quiet.

MODERN MOTHER HUBBARD

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

British, Russian Towns Exchange

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I don't know how much the wire services gave you from this Montgomery article, so I send the whole thing.

On another page was the letter from the clerk at Cheltenham, a community about the size of San Rafael, out past Oxford. It seemed like question-and-answer when you think of it with Monty's last line, "I'm all for trying."

I don't think Monty had the slightest awareness of what has been going on for 12 months between a Russian town and one right in his own back yard.

This is brought to your attention because the Independent-Journal has more than once demonstrated its originality and receptiveness to new ideas. This one is certainly at the grass-roots level.

It might appeal to some Marin community. If they feel diffidence, Littlewood's letter shows that it can work. (What a contrast with the Foreign Ministers, whose finest brains have been busy with the size and shape of the conference table.)

W. H. GRACE

London
(Home Ross)

(NOTE: Reader Grace enclosed a lengthy clipping from the Sunday Times of May 17, an article by Field-Marshall Montgomery about his Russian visit. His conclusion was that it may be possible to live and let the Russians live for the next 25 years and if this slackening of tensions in the next generation is accomplished, there is a "remote" possibility of the Russians becoming a part of Christendom. In any case, says Montgomery, "I'm all for trying." Reader Grace also enclosed the letter (below) to which he referred.

Sir,—In addition to those "cultural exchanges" with Russia suggested by Sir Fitzroy Maclean, can I also suggest those based on a civic or local government link? The "friendly tie" — the description used by the Russians — formed between the town of Sochi, an expanding health resort on the Black Sea, and the borough of Cheltenham, is now a year old.

Last May a delegation from Sochi came to Cheltenham, visited our industries, homes, shops, places of entertainment studied in particular our local government system, and took part in our mayor-making.

In the autumn we paid our return visit and saw not only much of Sochi but Moscow and Leningrad also. A great deal of trouble was taken to meet our special requests, and we were able to talk to people in their homes, factories, go over hospitals, schools, and a variety of educational establishments.

We brought back to Cheltenham impressions which the members of the delegation have elaborated at well-attended talks, and in discussions with their friends. We certainly know from what we heard in Russia that the Sochi delegation had recounted their experiences in the same way.

A number of people have been put in touch with each other in the two towns, and it is hoped that correspondence is starting to flow. We do know that magazines and journals we have sent have reached their destination. Finally, and most important of all, an exchange of young people is now under active consideration.

ON 35 MAJOR VOTES

Senate Hands Ike More Defeats Than Victories

By Congressional Quarterly

WASHINGTON—The Senate has handed President Eisenhower more defeats than victories this year.

Congressional Quarterly's interim study of Presidential Support shows that, on 35 test roll-call votes through May 19, the President's position prevailed on 17 but lost on 18.

The test votes, each of which involved an issue on which the President has previously taken a clear-cut stand, covered a wide range of subjects.

THE AVERAGE Democratic Senator, not surprisingly, bucked the President more than he backed him, supporting his position 41 per cent of the time and opposing it 49 per cent of the time. (Failures to vote accounted for the remaining 10 per cent.)

By contrast, the average Republican Senator backed the President five times as often as he opposed him, scoring 76 per cent support and 15 per cent opposition on the 35 test roll-calls.

Thirteen of the votes found a majority of Democrats and of Republicans in the President's corner. But on 21 others, on which the GOP majority also supported the President, the Democratic majority was opposed. On only one test vote did a majority of Republican Senators fail to back up the President, when they supported a $200-million compromise version of an area redevelopment bill.

TWO REPUBLICANS topped the Senate membership in Presidential support. Sens. Wallace F. Bennett (Utah) and Prescott Bush (Conn.) each backed the President on 34 of the 35 test votes, scoring 97 per cent. Highest Democratic score (89 per cent) belonged to Sen. Frank J. Lausche (Ohio), with Southern Democrats in the next eight places.

Highest scorers in presidential opposition were Sens. Wayne Morse (D, Ore.), who voted against the President's position 71 per cent of the time, and William Langer (R, N.D.), who did likewise on 69 per cent of the test votes.

Sen. Thomas Kuchel, (R, Calif.) backed the President on 60 per cent of the 35 test roll calls through May 19, and opposed him on 14 per cent. By contrast, his Eisenhower support score during the 85th Congress, based on 155 test roll calls in 1957 and 1958, was 84 per cent, his opposition score 15 per cent.

The 1959 scores for Sen. Clair Engle, (D, Calif.) were: Support — 40 per cent; Opposition — 60 per cent. These compared with his 85th Congress scores of when he was a Congressman of 46 per cent support and 25 per cent opposition.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

When Mike Romanoff, Hollywood restaurateur, read that 87 per cent of the nation's businessmen gulped down mashed potatoes, fried foods — or both — for luncheon meetings every day, he shuddered, and issued this directive forthwith, designed to keep those executive stomachs within bounds.

1. Eat a sandwich and drink a glass of milk before attending the luncheon. Then just pick at your food.

2. Say you're on a strict diet and demand two poached eggs.

3. Slip the waiter a bill and have him sneak you a lamb chop instead of the prepared indigestion-provoker.

4. Arrive late—just in time for coffee.

5. Eat at Mike's.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By LARRY LOVETT

Historical Marker For Old Mill Is Lost In Parked Cars, Weeds

One of the county's widely known points of tourist interest is the skeleton of the John Reed Sawmill in Mill Valley, for which the city is named.

In 1950, California's centennial year, the Native Sons and Daughters together with the California Centennials Commission erected a number of markers along California highways calling attention to nearby points of historical interest.

One of these, Marker 207, was erected on the west side of US 101 about midway between the Alto cross road and the crest of Alto hill. This called attention to the old sawmill about two miles distant in Mill Valley.

But progress soon dictated that US 101 should be widened as the overpass and traffic interchange was built. As a result, Marker 207, in the path of widening, was one day hoised from its spot and shunted down the road leading to Mill Valley.

Today, if you drive real slowly, you will find it at the Mill Valley-Alto boundary. You'll see it, that is, by peeking between a horde of all-day-parked commuter cars and by searching through and over assorted weeds and tall grass.

A SURE SIGN of approaching summer, just as regular as sunrise and sunset, is apparent on Mill Valley's Miller Avenue these days. The time is just after the close of classes at Tamalpais High School.

Stretched all the way from the school along the tree-lined entrance to the city's downtown area are couples from the school, hand in hand, arm in arm or arms about accompanying waists, moving at as about a slow a pace as is possible.

Nothing new about it. Remember when you went to high school?

WE DIDN'T KNOW how many people were painters. Not the portrait type but the house variety.

Our neighbor, George Antaki, who runs the Sequoia Paint Store, ran an ad a couple of weeks ago announcing that he was selling out at big discounts. There were customers all over the place.

And through it all, George has been his always gracious self with all the old world politeness that has been his trade mark. We wish him luck in his future activities.

THAT STORY last week about Belvedere City Manager Bing Rey and his successful humanitarian efforts in rescuing the newly hatched mallard ducklings which had dropped into a gutter catch basin, failed to note that the feat may have serious consequences in the future.

As we have noted on prior occasions, the genealogy and social background of the Belvedere Lagoon duck population is a matter of serious local consequence. We trust that as a lagoon resident, Bing is aware of this mallard mother's status so that her brood will be socially acceptable to the lagoon population—both duck and human.

THESE HUBERS get around.

Mill Valley's Mayor Bob Huber has a brother in Michigan who is also a city father.

Then when County Probation Officer Walter Busher told the Sausalito Rotary Club last week that the earliest law on work furlough programs was passed in Wisconsin in 1913, he identified it as the Huber law.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Little Rock Voters Act To Obey Rather Than Disobey The Law

When the American voters at the precinct level begin to take decision in their own hands at their own initiative over the heads of the political leaders—then the politicians better look out.

That is what happened at Little Rock last week. It was a deliberate, explicit voter-verdict against the extremist racial policies of Gov. Orval Faubus.

It suggests that the appeal of racial extremism has reached its peak and is declining.

It suggests that the power of Gov. Faubus has reached its peak and is declining.

THESE LITTLE ROCK elections, which uniformly rejected three extremist members of the school board and uniformly approved the three moderates, are so potentially significant that one of Faubus's political intimates could only make the defensive statement that it wasn't something which nobody said it was. He said it was not "a repudiation of Gov. Faubus."

It wasn't. The election did not go that far. But it did lead in that direction. What has happened—and it is significantly similar to what has been happening in Virginia—is:

That the majority of Little Rock voters is showing increasing impatience with the policies of Faubus who prefers to see violation of the law to compliance and who prefers no public education to even token integration.

That the majority of Little Rock voters has shown it wants a school board ready and willing to get the closed high schools open as soon as circumstances outside its control permit.

HOW DOES THIS voter uprising affect Gov. Faubus, whose words say he supports local option on school policy and whose actions say he wants to make the decisions by himself?

It affects Faubus particularly because it is his third setback in six months. Last December the three moderates on the school board, who were re-indorsed last week, were first elected over the governor's opposition.

Next the Arkansas legislature refused to give the governor the power he sought to add new members to the school board.

And now, the verdict of the Little Rock voters is in the same direction. Three of the six members of the school board managed to purge 44 of the city's school teachers, presumably on the assumption they were "too soft" on integration. The other three members submitted a recall petition and the extremists did the same. And so the election was on.

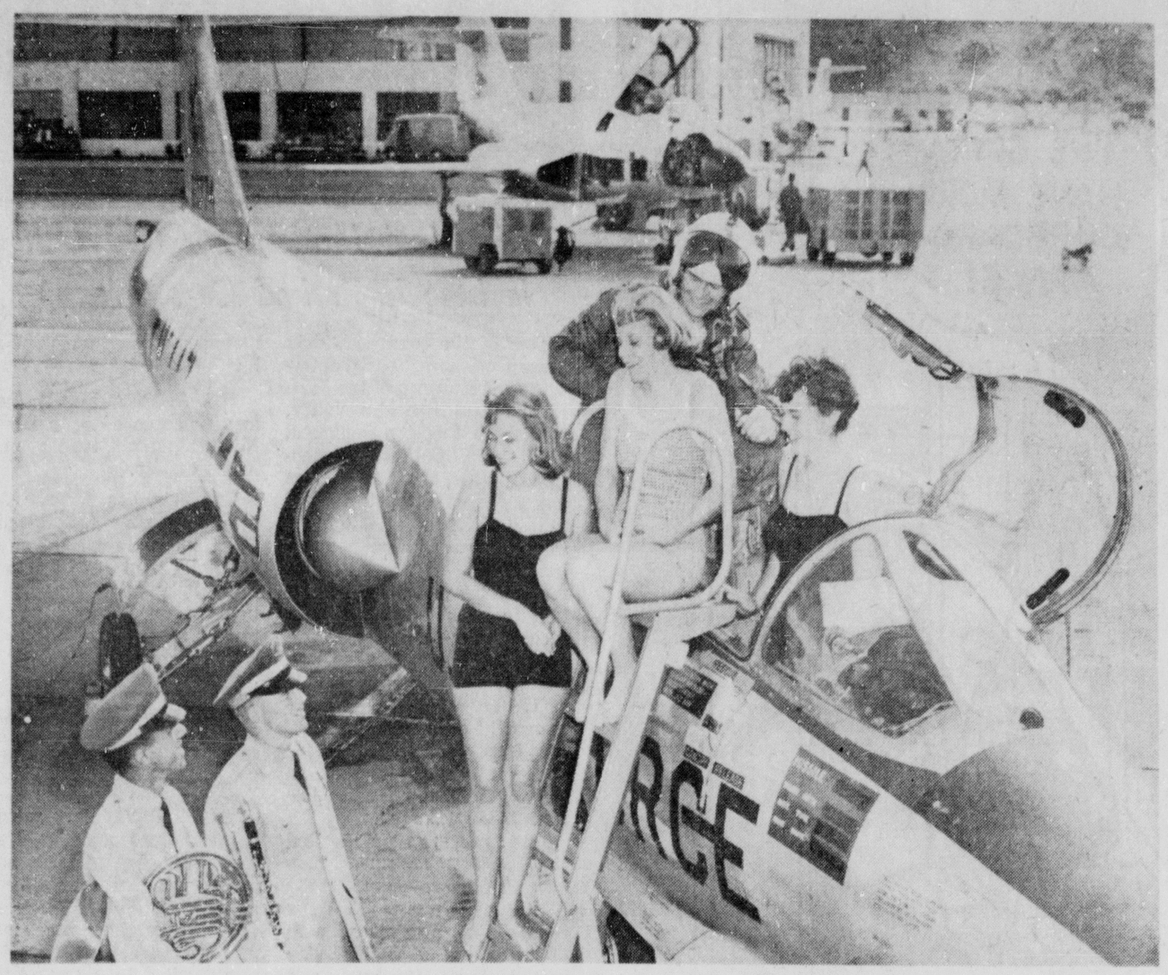
THE IMMEDIATE issue was the firing of the 44 teachers and the outcome would have turned and would have to have been measured on this issue if Gov. Faubus had not intervened. But he saw the election going against his wishes. He appealed for the re-election of the three who fired the teachers.

It was he who said that the issue at stake was not these teachers, but the retention of a school board implacably opposed to any degree of any integration under any circumstances.

The voters refused to follow Faubus's counsel.

There can be no immediate opening of the closed Little Rock schools. The reason is that Faubus has himself closed them under a state law, the constitutionality of which is now before the federal courts.

If the court declares the law unconstitutional, Little Rock has acted to create a school board which prefers to obey, rather than disobey the law and which prefers limited integration to unlimited ignorance for children who have no public schools to attend.



AQUACADE STARS AND STARFIGHTER

Donna Inman of Greenbrae, Sandy Anderson of Larkspur and Joan Mooney of Corte Madera are guests of Lt. Robert J. Morrison and an F104, both of the 83rd Fighter Interceptor Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base. The girls are swimmers from the Marin Ballet Aquacade to be held Saturday and Sunday at the Rober Kent estate in Kentfield for the benefit of Marin General Hospital and Marin Junior Theater. Looking on admiringly are Airmen John Lopez and John Holt of the 573rd Air Force Band which recorded the musical background for the Ballet Aquacade.

Corte Madera Council Faces Merger Proposal

A letter from the Larkspur City Council, urging that an election be held on merger of Larkspur and Corte Madera, is to be read at tonight's meeting of the Corte Madera Town Council.

The Corte Madera Council is evpected to take no action on the letter. A council-appointed Corte Madera study committee reported it found no advantages in merger. Reticence of Corte Madera officials to submit the proposal to the electorate is predicated partly on the fact that they expect the 1960 federal census to show Corte Madera's population as larger than Larkspur's. If merger were to take place now, Larkspur would be the consolidating city, since the most recent census shows its population greater than Corte Madera's.

Also on the agenda for the 7:30 o'clock council meeting in the town hall is another matter that has produced long debate in previous stages; improvement of Fifer Industrial Park. Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow is recommending that the council reject Fifer Properties' drainage plan.

A petition for town action to correct stagnation of the small lagoon is also to be discussed.

Numerous reports from committees and town officials fill out a lengthy agenda.

3 Marin Pupils Win Awards For Poetry

Three Marin County students were given awards yesterday in the Hazel Snell Schreiber Memorial Poetry Contest for Younger California Poets.

Martha Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Hamilton of San Rafael, won second prize for 10th graders for her poem "Spring." She is a student at Dominican Upper School.

Karen L. Woodman, daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Lyman L. Woodman of Terra Linda, received a second prize in the 11th grade group. Her poem was titled "For Mother on Her Birthday." Karen attends San Rafael High School.

In the 12th grade, Sally Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lane of Ross, received fifth honorable mention. She is from Katharine Branson School.

The awards were presented at a meeting of Ina Coolbrith Circle at the Women's City Club in San Francisco.

Four Marinites Get Army Awards

Walter R. Sutherland of 72 Valley circle, Mill Valley, and Lindon H. Bramwell of 97 Oak road, Fairfax, received $200 each and certificates for superior service.

Donald R. Flash of 141 Edwards avenue, Sausalito, and Helen F. Hehnke received $10 each and suggestion certificates. All four are employed in the Army's Pacific Transportation Terminal Command.

250 Horsemen Gather For Trails Assn. Debut

More than 250 devotees of the saddle launched Marin's newest and largest riding group, the Marin Trails Assn., at a "pow-wow" Saturday evening at Devil's Gulch in Samuel P. Taylor State Park.

Raymond H. Shone, San Rafael attorney and immediate past grand president of the Native Sons of the Golden West, was elected temporary chairman of the new organization. Seven riding clubs in the county, plus ranch and dairy interests, are represented on the board of directors.

The "pow-wow" was high point of a three-day trail ride arranged by the Marin Mounted Sheriff's Possee with cooperation of other riding groups.

Purpose of the new organization are to preserve equestrian trails in the county and promote good relations between riders and land owners, said Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos and Peter Helms, captain of the Mounted Sheriff's Posse, in brief addresses.

Robert Hatch, supervisor of project investigation for the state Division of Beaches and Parks, was principal speaker. He lauded Marin horsemen for combining into one cohesive group dedicated to the preservation of the county's existing riding facilities and obtaining additional access trails.

Tam Johnston of San Francisco, president of the California State Horsemen's Assn., told the group that more than 75,000 member riders in California spend in excess of 85 million dollars annually in pursuit of their hobby. The 1960 federal census may show as many as 250,000 riders and half a million mounts in the state, he declared.

J. W. Ehrlich, Corte Madera attorney, was master of ceremonies.

361 In State Died By Fire In 1958

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Fire took the lives of 361 Californians last year.

In his annual report to the governor, State Fire Marshal Joe R. Yockers said today that if population increases are taken into account, the figure reflects a steady downward trend in fire-caused fatalities.

Yockers said most deaths were among the very young or very old and more than half occurred in the winter. Ninety per cent of them happened indoors.

The firt marshal attributed a sharp decline in clothing fires to legislation setting a maximum limit on the combustion rate of fabrics.

Other major 1958 fire hazards included inadequate building exits and smoking in bed.

'FILL 'EM UP,' SAYS BIRD TO TEETOTALERS

SHEFFIELD, England (UPI) —Mr. and Mrs. Joe Collins are teetotalers and the parakeet they found perched on their doorstep is embarrassing them. It drinks.

"I'm a boozer," the parakeet announced on introduction. "My name is Mickey Barson. Fill 'em up George."

Mrs. Collins, who is giving the parakeet water only till his owner is found, said: "He must have come from a pub."

Drunken Driver Gets Jail, Fine

A Black Point motorist, who has two prior convictions for drunken driving, pleaded to his third offense and was sentenced to five days in jail and a $250 fine.

William Gordon Voorhies, 61, who lives on Crest road in Black Point, also loses his license for a least a year. He was arrested for drunken driving last Jan. 17 on Highway 101. He had prior convictions in March and in July, 1956.

Judge Richard M. Sims of Marin Municipal Court also sentenced two other drunken drivers for their first offense.

Thomas Gale Summers, 22, of Sacramento, a student at the University of Indiana, must pay a $150 fine and not drive for 90 days. He was arrested on Highway 101 last May 14.

Aalph Donald Vance, 35, of San Francisco, must pay a $150 fine and not drive for 90 days. He was arrested on Tiburon boulevard last April 30.

Divers Enter Cave Found By Lindbergh

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK (AP) — Skindivers who scouted a cave discovered in 1953 by Jon Lindbergh say they are coming back in the fall to make a two-week exploration.

The cave was bigger than they had believed and has many side passages where exploration will need equipment they did not bring along for their Saturday and Sunday jaunt.

Young Lindbergh, son of the famous flier and then a Stanford student, found the cave at the end of a 530 foot tunnel which opens into a Yosemite Lake. The tunnel is 50 feet below the surface of the water.

The cave chamber itself has a chamber 30 feet above water level, said Dick Haws, 18-year-old College of the Pacific student, and Guy Thro, 23, of Stockton. They found three flashlight bulbs left by Lindbergh.

With Haws and Thro in their long aqualung trip into the cave were Ed Davis, 22, of Redding who teaches elementary classes in Stockton, and Brad Fregger, 19, another COP student from San Jose.

Using artificial breathing apparatus and 40,000 candlepower flashlights, the divers made four trips yesterday in their final reconnaissance which disclosed existence of many side passages, Haws said.

Billy Graham Ends Visit 'Down Under;' 5,000 Say Goodby

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) — Billy Graham was flying to Europe today, his three-month revival campaign in Australia and New Zealand a huge success.

About 5,000 people stood in a heavy rain at the airport to say goodby to the American evangelist.

Graham planned to spend a few days in Zurich, then join his wife for a holiday in Britain.

Organizers said the total attendance at Graham's three months of meetings totaled 3,217,500. Decisions for Christ totaled more than 140,000.

Man Found Guilty Of Jail Damage

Jack Watson Jr., 20, former San Rafael brickyard worker who is now working at a plywood mill in Gridley, has been found guilty of drunkenness in Fairfax and damaging jail property last May 13.

Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. set 3:30 p.m. June 10 as the time for sentencing.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Hadden Roth called Fairfax police officer Charles Grasso, who testified he saw Watson fall off a bicycle at the Fairfax parkade and later sitting on a bench in front of the bus station, apparently drunk.

Sheriff's Sgt. Joseph Mooney and Deputy Douglas Glendhill said Watson put up a fight at the county jail and had to be forced into the drunk tank. There, the youth broke a water faucet. Watson said he does not remember the bicycle incident at all. He said he had two beers but was not drunk. He explained he resisted officers because he had had an argument with a friend and was angry.

Jack Pins Driver

While ambulance driver Angelo Tagliavento, 23, was repairing his car at 308 Atherton street in Novato yesterday, the jack slipped and his life elbow was pinned under the car. He was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for a severe contusion.

Fire Season In Fairfax

Fairfax Fire Chief Charles Thornton announced that summer fire regulations would go into effect today, and no open burning would be permitted after this date.

3 Branson Pupils Receive Honors

Two members of this year's graduating class, and one junior student from Katharine Branson School in Ross, received honors recently.

Sally Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lane of Ross, received two scholarships. One, for the academic year of 1959, is from the University of California Alumni.

The other, which Miss Lane plans to accept, is the Stanford Heritage Scholarship, a fund which is collected by the university's graduating class from Stanford businessmen and women and awarded to an incoming freshman. The scholarship can be renewed each of the four years of college.

Jane Everett, from St. Helena, has been selected to go Austria to live as part of the Experiment in International Living.

Gwen Meisner will spend six weeks this summer between her junior and senior years of school in Italy as an exchange student in the American Field Service Program. Her home is at King's Beach, Lake Tahoe.

San Rafael Youth Will Attend AROTC Camp

Roger J. Austin, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Austin of 25 Ridge avenue, San Rafael, will attend the Air Force ROTC summer training camp at George Air Force Base from June 14 to July 11.

Young Austin is a senior at Stanford University, and will return to the campus this fall to complete an engineering course. After graduation he will be commissioned a second lieutenant in the Air Force.

No Protests Received On Park Facilities

No protests were received Thursday, the deadline, against installation of mooring and landing facilities at Angel Island State Park, it was announced today by the Army Corps of Engineers in San Francisco.

Planned are a mooring float, three landing floats and 10 finger floats, two gangways, a timber and structural steel landing, a concrete landing and other projects.

DOGGIED UP FOR WESTERN WEEKEND

Even the fire plugs are getting in the act for Novato's Western Weekend, June 19-21, which features a horse show and rodeo. Here, fireman Sam Rarzell puts a final touch of red paint on new coat on fire hydrant on Grant avenue. He and fellow firemen have brightened up all the plugs along the street so they'll shine for the big weekend. (Independent-Journal photo)

Teen-Age Boy Cried And Cried While His Friend Died In Flames

I was driving late at night. The highway was deserted. Suddenly I noticed far behind me two sets of headlights abreast of each other. One car was on the left side of the road, one on the right. I saw they were gaining on me, fast. I pulled off the highway and let them go screaming by—neck and neck, over 100 miles per hour.

Who were they? Two teenage drivers racing their cars. I drove on, dreading what I might find. Soon I saw them again. The car on the left had pulled over toward the one on the right, forcing it off the road. The wheels hit sand. The car had turned over, rolled an incredible distance, then exploded into flame. I watched it cremate the unconscious driver. The other boy had stopped. He had tried, frantically, to rescue his friend, and failed. Watching the flames he cried, and cried, and cried.

Summer vacation is almost here and our teen-agers will be driving more than ever. Will they take horrid chances? Will they race, and kill someone? Or die themselves?

We should do all we can to make them drive carefully. Have your young people taken the driver training course offered in high school? If not, have them enroll this summer. Do they know they'll lose the right to drive if they use a car recklessly? That should be one of your rules. Do they also know that if they get tickets they will suffer the consequences? You should not "fix" traffic tickets for them. Driving is an adult activity. Don't baby your teen-age drivers. be sure you set a good example in your own driving.

Today is Monday, June 1, the 152nd days of the year, with 213 more days to follow in 1959.

The moon is approaching its new quarter.

The morning stars are Saturn and Mercury.

The evening stars are Mars, Venus and Jupiter.

On this date in history:

In 1792, Kentucky was admitted to the Union as the 15th state.

In 1796, another star was added to the flag as Tennessee became the 16th state in the Union.

In 1813, "Done give up the ship" became the slogan of the Navy, after Capt. James Lawrence, commander of the Chesapeake, was carried mortally wounded from his post on the deck during the battle with the British frigate Shannon.

In 1878, John Masefield, English novelist and poet laureate, was born.

In 1944, the siesta was abolished in Mexico.

Thought for today: From John Masefield, once poet laureate of Britain: "One ought to see everything that one has a chance of seeing; because in life not many has one chance and none has two."

A three-man demolition team from Hamilton Air Force Base tried without success last night to explode four sticks of dynamite discovered about 10 feet below Paradise drive, just north of the former Tiburon Naval Net Depot.

The dynamite sticks, wrapped together with wire, were found shortly before 7 p.m. by Williams Simmons of 88 Circle drive, Mill Valley. He notified the sheriff's office, which summoned the Hamilton team.

The Air Force men, two staff sergeants and an airman first class, detonated the dynamite caps at 9:10 p.m. but the dynamite itself did not explode.

Standing by when the attempt was made were units of the Tiburon Fire Department. Paradise drive was blocked off by the Highway Patrol and sheriff's officers.

CPS Offers Health Plan For Aging

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—California Physicians Service is offering a prepaid health plan for Californians 65 or older.

CPS says the plan, for which it will accept applications only during June, will be an adjunct to the CPS-Blue Shield service to groups and individuals.

Costs are $6.90 a month for men and $7.90 for women, with the patient paying the doctor an additional $1 for each office or hospital call, $2 for each home call and fees ranging from 20 cents to $10 for various laboratory services.

CARE INCLUDED

These changes do not cover hospital care, nursing or drugs, but take care of surgery in and out of hospitals, and pay part of the cost of doctors visits in hospitals, and pay part of the cost of doctors visits in hospital and at home, limited X-ray and laboratory services.

If single participants in the new plan have an income of more than $3,000 a year, a doctor may charge more and the patient will have to make up the difference. A married couple with a $4,500 income also would have to pay extra.

CARE EXCLUDED

Hospitalization coverage does not include stays for diagnosis, observation, rest or convalescence. It does not apply to workmen's compensation cases where federal, state or any other medical or hospital organization is involved.

The new plan does not include phychiatric or sanitarium care, eyeglasses, routine physical examinations, physical therapy or dental service.

Membership does not require a physical examination, but if the applicant has a condition months before he joins, he must wait six months before he can get benefits.

Senate Adopts Gas Tax Proposal

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The Senate last week adopted a constitutional amendment to allow local agencies to use gasoline tax receipts to finance bonds for street and road construction.

Its author, Sen. Richard J. Dolwig (R-Redwood City), said a similar amendment was rejected in the 1958 election because it carried no provision for local voters to approve issuance of the bonds.

Such a provision is included in Dolwig's amendment, which would be voted on in the 1960 election, if approved by the legislature. It now goes to the Assembly.

Packing's No Puzzle If You Just Leave Out The Wrinkles

Every crease is a potential wrinkle. So pad each fold with "pleated" tissue paper; it takes up no room and adds no weight. In an emergency, substitute rolled sweater, sox or lingerie for tissue.

Pack heaviest items at the bottom of the case (near hinges) so that there will be no shifting about when the case is carried. Stuff shoes with handkerchiefs, hose, sox, etc. to save space. Cover shoes with mitts or old sox to protect garments.

For the least possible number of folds, work next to the case, fitting each garment to its dimensions. Fold skirts and dresses near the waistline rather than at the hem. Pack needed items such as sleeping garments and slippers on top.

To pack a wardrobe hanger case, first fill the bottom section with accessories. Then place dresses and suit coats on hangers or bars; let sleeves hang along side seams, turning in fronts and backs carefully. Pin skirts to hangers or bars, folding sides towards the center.

To fold a jacket for flat packing, hold jacket facing you with a hand inside each shoulder; flip right shoulder over left, turning body of jacket inside out. Smooth sleeves and lapels, and lay jacket flat in the case. If the jacket is too long, fold at the waistline using tissue for padding.

For protection to collars, unfold shirts to full length; refold with the shirtail up over front, tucked inside of the collar. Pack shirts front to front with collars opposite each other.

Organize for efficiency when you're packing a man's 'suiter bag. In the accessories section, place shoes at the hinged side, toilet kit and tie case in the center.

CONVENIENT—WITH KNOW-HOW—To the uninitiated, a two-suiter bag designed to hold men's clothing and accessories can be a formidable obstacle. Here is how to get the most out of the fine features offered by this luggage: (1) In hanger compartment lay trousers east to west, alternating each pair, with cuffs hanging out; (2) Place jackets on hangers, unbuttoned. Softly roll sleeves along side seams rather than crossing them over; (3) Bring trouser legs over inserted folding board, one pair at a time; follow with jacket ends; (4) Cover with curtain; proceed with accessories in other half of case; (5) Put all heavy items in hinged side of case. Roll knitted items, use to stuff corners. Place shirts face to face, alternating collar-to-tail; (6) Close case and be off . . . to arrive with nary a wrinkle!

Travel Agent Knows Best; Trust Him For A Fine Trip

Your travel agent knows best! Trust his judgment and you'll have the best vacation ever, either here or abroad, at the price you want to pay.

Many tourists are doubtful about consulting a travel agent, feeling he is influenced more by his connections with the travel services he sells than by what his clients really desire. This is a lot of nonsense.

After all, the travel agent wants and needs your interest, not only for the trip you're planning at present, but for other, more extensive tours.

He's in business to please the person with wanderlust, and hopes for a repeat visit from you the next time you feel the urge for far-away places.

The travel agent is not an armchair adviser . . . he's an experienced traveler. Not only has he carefully studied places and people and customs, but he's actually traveled to most of the places he recommends!

Small wonder he saves travelers money, time, inconvenience and worry. Some agents average 5,000 miles a year, scores travel 25,000 a year, a few dozen 50,000 and a few cover more than 100,000 miles a year.

Their policy is to send their staff traveling too, so that there is someone in the agency with recent knowledge of each major tourist area in the world.

Of course, you can make all the arrangements for your trip yourself. You can visit steamship and airline offices, correspond with hotels, figure out connections, obtain information on currency exchange, health and customs regulations. You can do all this the hard way or you can consult your travel agent, and have it done free and easily! Free for you because your agent earns commissions from the carriers, resorts, hotels and sightseeing companies.

An extra bonus in seeing a travel agent comes in the form of little "extras" . . . that list of best restaurants to visit, how to find babysitters in Paris, and scores of other choice "tidbits."

How to find a good travel agent? The same way you choose a good doctor or an expert repairman! By recommendation or by checking his reputation. It removes all doubt if he belongs to a trade organization like ASTA (American Society of Travel Agents), with standards which protect the traveler.

NATO (National Assn. of Travel Organizations) is also reputably known, worldwide.

Why Not Take Boat Vacation?

One of the fastest growing and most popular types of vacations this summer is a boating vacation!

According to the DCC Card Club, a national organization that issues credit cards to boating enthusiasts — more than seven million boats of all sizes and types will be on the nation's inland and coastal waterways this summer.

For those lucky enough to have larger boats, vacation trips are real fun. Almost everywhere are marinas and other waterfront facilities to make their trip more comfortable.

For the small boat enthusiast confined to local waters, there's fun in packing a family picnic lunch and stopping for the midday meal at a peaceful and secluded spot along the shore. Or, the family members can take turns water skiing and surfboard riding. Fishing can be a family boating affair, too!

A combination car-boat vacation is perfect for persons with smaller boats who also want to tour inland. With a car and boat trailer arrangement, you can travel to distant points, and have the fun of trying out new bodies of water along the way. At the same time, you'll be able to enjoy all the tourist sights on land.

To make your car-boat trip more convenient, it's possible now to leave cash at home and pay for the vacation with one credit card, good on both land and water.

SAFETY CAN BE FUN

The driver on a long motor trip needs regular rest periods in order to drive safely. A picnic stop gives everyone a chance to "stretch his legs" and helps break up the monotony of the trip. A road-side picnic is easy to plan with the many types of picnic equipment available today.

Vacationing Male Is Well Dressed Now

In a fast-changing America, few things have changed more radically than the appearance of men at leisure.

Today's vacationing male is dressed right to get the most from his care-free, work-free hours. No more "old rags" for loafing times.

A big part of the leisure-wear story for 1959 is summed up in the words "wash-and-wear." The well-dressed, vacationing male can satisfy his desire for light-weight, versatile clothing with almost all wash-and-wear duds.

But wash-and-wear is only part of a story that adds up to more attractive, more colorful, more comfortable and more practical togs for the American man at leisure.

This revolution in men's fun-time dress habits has confirmed by resort managers queried by the American Institute of Men's and Boys' Wear.

A California veteran resort man reported: "I used to despair at some of the sloppy outfits I saw, but no more! There's a new tone to the way men look these days, a kind of savvy about leisure wear."

The trend to dressing right for every occasion is helped along by magazines, other opinion shapers and by what is shown in movies and on TV.

What caused this so-called "renaissance" in men's style designing?

As leisure time became more important nationally, so men began to demand new leisure wear, and they've been getting more really exciting styles.

Today there's more variety, more comfort and more style in what men wear away from their jobs.

Uncle Sam Is Bargain Ally

Every U.S. resident out of the country for at least 48 hours is entitled to bring back $200 in purchases duty free. Those who have been abroad 12 days or longer (and this includes practically all U.S. visitors to Europe) may return with $500 of merchandise duty free provided they have not claimed a similar exemption within the prior six months.

PRIZED GIFT FOR GRAD

A personal television set is a highly prized graduate gift. This portable's steel case combines lightness with strength.

Give The Graduate Gifts He Wants

Today's graduates are living in a space-minded age, but they've got their feet firmly on the ground.

They're serious, responsible, career-conscious beyond their years. And this unexpected maturity might pose a problem for a graduate's family and friends who are accustomed to giving the traditional graduation gifts.

Faced with this situation, the best-intentioned giver stops a minute to think. Somehow the old routine of "it doesn't really matter whether he can use it, it's the sentiment that counts" won't apply these days.

The up-to-date rule of thumb is: give practical, durable gifts the graduate wants and can use.

If you know a graduate well enough to be sending a gift, you probably know where his interests lie and what he will be doing after graduation. Those two points are the key to the problem of selection.

Break it down this way:

Will he (or she) be living at home and working?

Then what about his own portable television set complete with roll-away table? (The whole family could chip in on a major gift like this.) Or how about those new bookcases of steel-rod panels that he can put together in minutes in the exact design he wants?

Will he (or she) be moving away from home to college or a job?

This opens up a whole new field of giving: furniture and small appliances. Even if the new apartment or room is furnished, he will need steel-rod panel bookcases (that can double as room dividers).

Other good ideas are clocks, lamps (the pole or tole kind are both practical and handsome), a desk (the new steel models are durable and streamlined), magazine racks.

Stainless steel flatware is a tasteful, useful gift that needs no pampering or polishing. It's especially thoughtful for girl graduates.

The new automatic portable electric stoves make heating a can of soup for a nourishing snack a cinch. Also new are stainless steel coffeemakers which need a minimum of cleaning effort.

Want him to write often?

Don't forget a new portable typewriter. It will have more practical uses for a graduate than it has keys. Choose one of steel and it will stand up to roughest use and the hardest traveling.

What does he do for sport?

If it's golf, what about a really good set of clubs?

If he's the outdoor type, don't overlook the possibility of fishing or camping equipment.

A do-it-yourself fan always needs more tools for his workshop.

GRADS LIKE 'EM — Mousetrap carriers, hand brakes and a powerful headlight are features of new bicycles graduates like.

Auto Heads Gift List For Grads

What one king-size gift can you think of that ranks number one on the want-most list of graduate and bride?

You're right, it's a new automobile, and you don't have to look far for the reasons.

It's a proud moment when Dad hands the new graduate his keys to a new automobile —an official family recognition of his reaching maturity.

Transportation to his new job is now no problem. And hobbies that once were difficult to pursue because of inaccessibility — camping, exploring, golfing on suburban links — are within his reach.

Another big advantage in the graduate having his own car is that it eliminates scrabbling for the family automobile. Eliminates it, that is, if Mother also has her own new car.

A modern homemaker must be able to get somewhere at a moment's notice — to shop, run household errands, pick up the children. In a one-car family even a tactical genius who can plan campaigns days ahead is often stranded at a critical moment. For the hundred and one things a mother must do daily, for her family and herself, she needs a car — her own new car.

For the bride, starting out a wholly new life, there's something especially appropriate about a new car. In it she can explore all the fascinating facets of her new world, as well as keep up the close contacts with family and old friends.

What kind of an automobile to get the graduate or bride?

Today's American cars are mechanically excellent — triumphs of engineering skill and advanced designs, making use of more than 100 different steels. The differences, therefore, are largely in refinements.

That's why it's best to let the prospective proud owner do his or her own choosing. Selecting a car is a personal matter, in model, styling and color.

A new automobile is the most welcome gift a family can give—whether to a graduate in recognition of his coming of age, or as a "homemaking appliance" for the bride.

CREATIVE OUTLET — A sewing machine gives the girl graduate an outlet for her creativity and helps her dress better for less money.

Typewriter Is Good Gift For Graduate

Any doubt that this is the age of communications might be dispelled by the results of a recent survey in which people were asked to name the one gift they thought most appropriate for graduation.

A portable typewriter won by a wide margin over other gift suggestions. For high school graduates, women respondents gave a portable typewriter a nearly 3-to-1 lead, while men preferred the typewriter nearly 4-to-1.

A portable typewriter also ranked high as gifts for grammar school and college graduates.

Portable typewriters now range from extremely lightweight models to machines that have nearly all the features of standard office machines.

Features of current portable typewriters include: page-end indicator, quick-set margins, 1, 2, 3-line and variable spacing, carriage centering lock and full length tabulator.

The nation's oldest horse race track is in Saratoga Springs, N.Y. Its inaugural meeting was in August, 1864.

WILL SERVE LONG — A portable typewriter will serve the graduate well in further schooling or career.

Give Him The Words

There's one thing no Dad ever gets enough of . . . books on his favorite hobby or pastime.

Play It Safe

If you are in doubt as to what Dad would really like best, you can make sure that he gets what he wants by presenting him with a gift certificate on one of his favorite stores.

'Valet' For Dad

Dad will get plenty of use from a clothes valet if he gets one for a Father's Day gift. These handsome wooden accessories permit him to neatly hang up his clothes for the next day's wear and they have places for his wallet and change

Gift Registry Helps A Lot

One of the most practical and modern ideas for weddings is the store gift registry.

Every wise bride-to-be today checks on her local facilities and, just as soon as the day is set, hurries along to register. At the store, a trained counselor will help the bride choose the stainless steel flatware, kitchenware and other housewares of her preference and will note the designs and colors and other relevant details.

These bridal counselors are "up" on the latest advances in all types of gifts. She'll know, for instance, that the newest thing in automatic coffee makers is stainless steel, and she'll be able to tell the bride its advantages.

All friends and relatives seeking advice on the perplexing problem of "what-to-give" can tactfully be referred to the registry, where they will get discreet guidance on what has already been bought and what the bride really needs and wants.

Father (Granddad, Too) Will Have His Own Day June 21

June 21 will be "a day to applaud," Father's Day. American families will gather in every section of the country to do honor to the family breadwinner who is often also a part-time handyman, carpenter, plumber, gardener, mechanic and weekend chauffeur for the kids.

This year and next, the Father's Day Council is planning a mammoth 50th Jubilee Anniversary celebration, commemorating the 50th anniversary of the founding of Father's Day in 1910. 1960 marks the 50th birthday of Father's Day.

This will be the fourth year that Granddads will officially participate in the celebration. Those senior Dads have an enviable record in shaping the characters of the fathers of the newest generation—a tradition that has passed down as recognized in the Father's Day slogan, "Integrity starts in the home."

How can we say thanks to these staunch men who ask no thanks? The casual, "Thanks, Dad," murmured so often during the year is hardly sufficient on his big day. When he sits down to the family dinner of chicken or meat, cranberry sauce, ice cream and cake, with all the "trimmin's" — the "official" menu for the day—have carefully chosen tokens of your affection and esteem at his place at the head of the table.

Another accepted tradition of Father's Day is the wearing of a red rose for living fathers and a white rose for those no longer with us.

Dad's gifts will mean much more to him if he knows they have been selected with an eye to his needs and preferences.

Most fathers can use some good looking additions to their summer wardrobes. Cool summer business shirts, colorful, comfortable sport shirts, belts, ties, sportswear and slacks are always welcome gifts.

Sportsmen will enjoy gifts of athletic and sporting equipment to aid them in the pursuit of their favorite pastimes.

Golfers dote on new irons and woods, tennis playing Dads go for new racquets, fishermen are always in need of extra tackle, and bowlers will take delight in a custom fitted ball, bowling shirts or bowling shoes. There are also bowling bags in which Dad can carry all of his equipment to the alleys.

Camera fans among our Dads and Granddads are easy to gift. If they have a 35 mm. camera they will want a reflex and vice versa.

THE DO-IT-YOURSELF Dad will find lots of uses for a home mechanic's kit including electric drill and accessories and socket wrench set.

Dad Can Do It Himself With These

There is usually enough boy left in every Dad to keep alive his interest in tools. This is especially true in this era of do-it-yourself.

As a result, there are few better gifts than the hand tools or power tools that Dad longingly gazes at in his favorite hardware store.

The spare-time carpenter has need of a good hand saw or specialized saws such as a back saw for cutting miters, a keyhole saw for round cuts or, maybe, a rip saw.

Planes, drills, screwdrivers, chisels, mallets and hammers are among the primary needs of the amateur carpenters as are squares, levels, rules and scratch awls. To make those miter joints perfect he will need a miter box to use with his hack-saw, too.

Almost every do-it-yourselfer needs some power tools. The most popular of these is the power drill.

These come with many attachments that convert the drill to a sander, a polisher, or a grinder among many other available applications.

Advanced workers will delight in power saws, bench saws and radial saws. These can do a multitude of jobs with a professional flourish for the amateur.

Gift Of Sporting Gear Will Add To Dad's Happy Hours

Your Father's Day Gift can add to Dad's happiest hours if you give him sporting equipment for his favorite pastime.

Pleasant and practical reminders of your affection for him will accompany Dad to the golf links, the tennis courts, the bowling alleys or on fishing trips if you carefully choose some gear for his pet recreation.

If your Dad is a golfer he will almost certainly have his eye on some new irons or matched woods. Perhaps he could use a new golf bag. He most certainly can use a couple of dozen of his favorite brand of golf balls. If his old golf shoes are shot, give him a gift certificate for a comfortable new pair. A caddy cart will be a big help in lugging his clubs down the fairways.

If tennis is Dad's forte, a brand new tightly strung racquet, in his favorite weight with the size grip best suited to his hand, will make his eyes shine. A new racquet press or a tennis case for his racquet and tennis clothes are other fine gift ideas. Several vacuum cans of tennis balls will last him most of the summer.

Fisherman Dads never seem to have enough tackle. Fresh water anglers dote on fly casting rods, dry flies, new line, new reels and creels. They also like the new folding nets that pack small enough to fit into a club bag.

Salt water fishermen go for heavier tackle in the way of rods and reels. Surf-casters prefer the long sturdy rods while boatmen use shorter rods with enough whip to get the bait away.

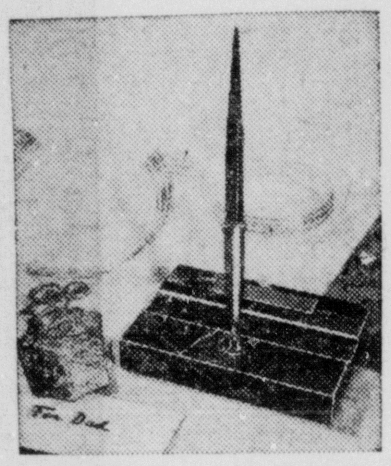
Big game fishermen need heavier rods for tuna, swordfish and marlin. They also need king-size reels to hold enough line with which to fight those monsters.

Ranging in scope from a new outboard motor to a set of signal flags there are compasses, searchlights, fire extinguishers, kapc: filled life-saver-cushions, anchors, running lights, cook stoves or even a new dinghy.

DAD REGISTERS surprise and enthusiasm as daughter presents him with a watch for Father's Day. This one is electric, powered by a tiny energy cell.

THE FAMILY says "Happy Fathers Day" to Dad with a portable typewriter he can use at home or on business trips. Has a handsome cowhide carrying case.

DAD WILL enjoy taking over as an "outdoor chef" if you gift him with a portable barbecue grill. This father finds plenty of "makings" in nearby freezer.



TO GLORIFY Dad's desk at home or office: A handsome desk set with Italian marble base with gold colored holder for the smooth-writing pen.

Getting Around Dad

Dad will be delighted to find one or more of the new belts among his Father's Day gifts. These belts are both colorful and comfortable. The buckles have been styled with heraldic shields and ancient coins.

Sure To Please

You're making a safe bet with a raincoat gift for Dad. If he already has one, give him another to keep at the office for emergency shower protection.

Hobby Gifts Perfect For Father's Day

Gift Dad with an adjunct to his favorite hobby this Father's Day and, if he doesn't have a hobby, get him started on one that will fill his leisure hours with healthful relaxation.

Doctors say that every man should have a hobby to take his mind off of the problems of his business day, and the range of these fascinating pastimes is wide enough to engage the interests of all Dads.

One of the oldest hobbies is stamp collecting. Philatelists usually specialize in their collections, so if your Dad is a collector, aim your gift at his specialty. He may need extra albums, a good magnifying glass or, perhaps, he has his eye on a certain special stamp.

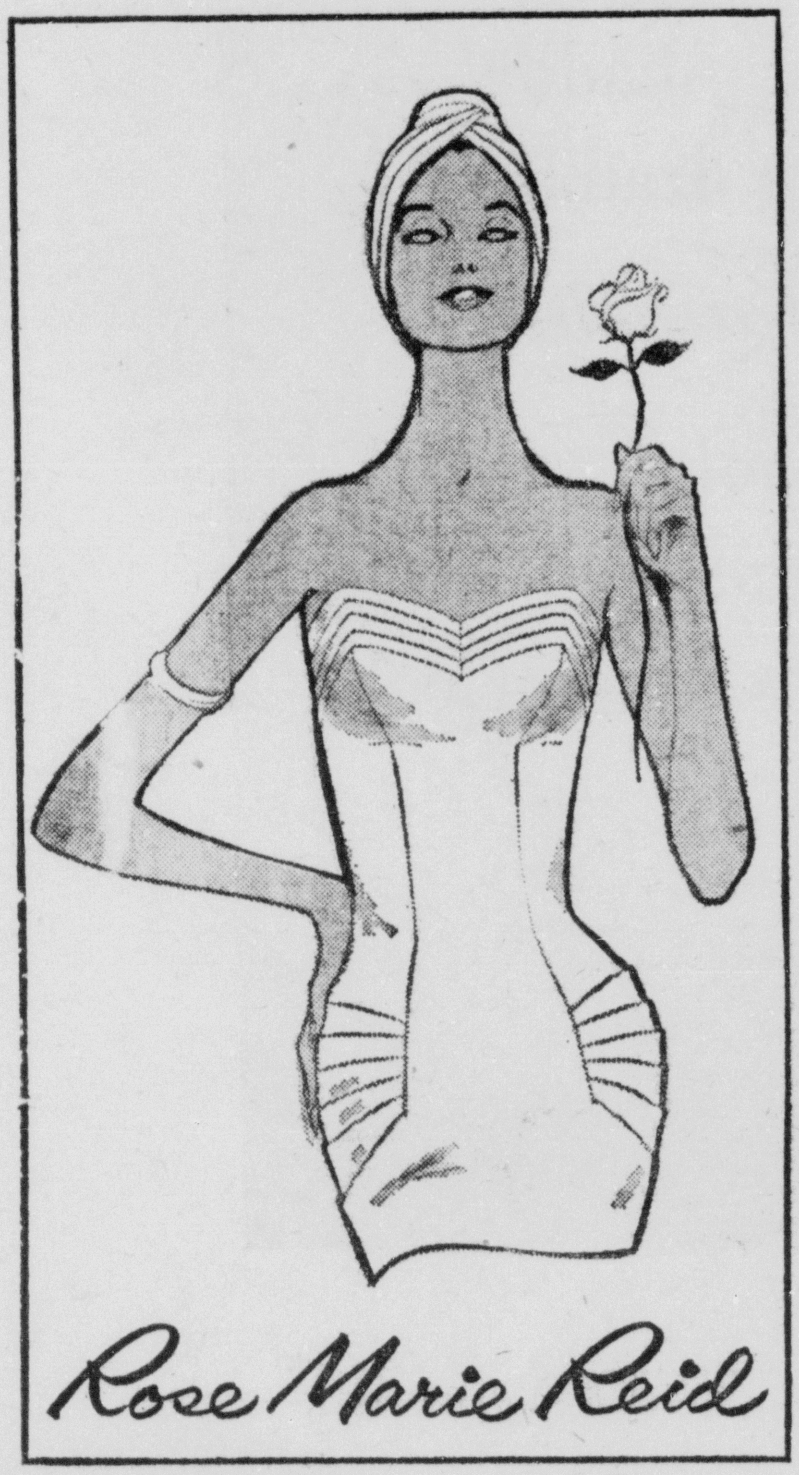
Coin collecting has many adherents, too. These fellows are as avid as their brother stamp collectors and are always on the lookout for rare coins or "mints" to fill in a series.

The latest hobby is stereo hi-fi. Many a Dad who didn't know a decibel from a microgroove a year or so ago is now an amateur electronic genius.

Hi-fi fans are always in need of component parts such as speakers, turntables, pick-up arms, cartridges, amplifying units and of course, records.

Is your Dad a gardener? These fellows seldom have enough hand tools such as rakes, spades, hoes and cultivators. They also can use garden carts, hose, sprinklers and spray nozzles. If he does his gardening on a big scale, one of the new power handles that operate tillers, cultivators and harrows will save him a lot of back-breaking work. Some of these convert into snow-plows, too.

Tropical fish with their needed accessories, model building kits and tools, as well as paints and brushes for weekend artists are other good hobby gifts.



RADIANCE reminds you never to underestimate the power of the swim-sheath! Curved and finely fitted, every inch...see its look of a tiny waist, its mastery of tuckery in elasticized bengaline.

These Gifts Make Bride Feel A Queen

R.S.V.P. will be the order of the day soon. From now until summer's end, America's social season will be in full swing. Graduations, showers, weddings, anniversaries, parties, birthdays and many other festivities will be blossoming.

And with all this enjoyment comes the obligation of an appropriate gift. And what's the best way to respond, if you please, to these occasions?

And since most of these gifts are for the lady fair, what gift subjects will make them feel like queens?

The modern queen's delight would equal Isabella's (when Columbus brought the treasures of the New World to her dainty feet) should her gift be something exquisite, yet practical and permanent. Priceless gems made Isabella live better majestically. Priceless appliance gems make the modern queen live better . . . electrically.

What young bride-to-be wouldn't glow with delight at her shower party upon receiving a shining gem of an electric appliance. Perhaps an automatic saucepan, or skillet or blender.

Imagine the new bride's delight in knowing her kitchen will include a push-button controlled electric range, or a portable, fully automatic dishwasher.

And how proud the bride is as she opens her gift to find a modern, compact vacuum cleaner that glides through work more effectively. She knows the practical gift if anyone does.

And don't forget the master of the house. He'll appreciate your thinking of him with such items as the smartly styled clock-radios for his den or bedroom.

Parents thinking of something for their proud, graduating offspring have splendid choices such as the portable twin sterophonic record player-amplifier, or the delicate debutante electric shaver.

A TABLE OF GIFTS—This fortunate bride has received a whole table full of gifts that are as lovely as they are practical. Even the tubular dinette set and serving cart are gifts.

USEFUL GIFT—Any bride can serve perfect coffee from this handsome stainless steel coffeemaker—it's a beautifully useful gift.

DEAR MARINIANS

At last we welcome the magic month of June, which means different things to different people. To us old-timers it conjures up nostalgic songs with tune, soon, spoon, and honeymoon, but to the youngsters and young parents, it means graduations and summer vacations.

And that's where we come in. This—to remind you of our wonderful selections in swimwear and playwear, and of course, dress-up clothes for graduations. Please remember we carry everything for girls up to size 14 and boys to size 8. After many compliments from our customers on the quality, style and sensible prices of the beautiful clothes we carry, we'd like to list the famous labels they bear:

NANNETTE SACONY HEALTHTEX
CINDERELLA REGAL KWIKI
MAC SHORE NEWPORT
BILLY THE KID
SHIP 'N' SHORE CARTER
TRUNDLE BUNDLE TODDLE TYKE
KREUGER MRS. DAY SHOES

Our jewelry selections are guaranteed to delight young graduates. They include lovely birthstone rings (only $1.00), pretty bracelets with necklaces to match, glamorous jewel boxes and comb, brush and mirror sets. You'll be surprised at the wee prices—many for only $1.00 and up to $13.98.

Congratulations and best wishes to you young graduates and a happy vacation to you all. May we suggest a good supply of our smart easy-to-care-for play clothes for the well-dressed look plus a carefree vacation?

Electric Housewares Perfect For Showers

Either as a shower or a wedding gift, nothing delights the heart of the prospective homemaker half so much as an electric appliance.

In the kitchen her stainless steel coffee maker will turn out perfect coffee for her very first breakfast in the new home, even if she can't boil water. Her waffle iron and stainless steel electric mixer insures waffles just the way he likes them. No burnt toast will pop from the automatic toaster.

And the perfect first breakfast will be followed by a perfect dinner with the help of the bride's electric servants.

There are whole families of appliances that work off one plug-in heat controller. And, of course, there are actually dozens of individual appliances ranging up to the capacious rotisseries that can cook a whole meal automatically.

In Choosing Gift For Bride Put Yourself In Her Shoes

In choosing a gift for a bride, the Golden Rule is—as usual—a good rule of thumb.

Just put yourself in her white satin shoes and think what you'd like to have—something practical, of course . . . a gift that would get constant use.

You wouldn't want one of those hopeless presents that clutter an attic until it's dusted off and put on display when the donor is expected to visit. Take the kitchen, the center of home life. Just about everything these days that goes into a kitchen—except the bride, of course—is made of enduring steel.

All appliances — large and small — are made to last. Pots and pans, knives, gadgets and utensils, garbage cans, canisters — this list goes on and on.

For other part of the house, you will always find practical gift ideas. An electric heater to keep her warm and an electric fan to keep her cool are bedroom equipment. Some ingenious units combine heating and cooling.

There are items to keep her beautiful and feeling fit as a bride for years to come: hair dryer, bath scales, manicuring set.

One of the most pressing items is a steam or dry iron. And don't forget the roll-away steel ironing table.

Brides like to start out being tidy. What could be more helpful than closet racks for shoes, ties, bags and belts; multiple skirt, blouse and trouser hangers. An inviting closet is good for husband training, too. He wouldn't be caught throwing his clothes around with such lovely surroundings to hang them in.

A gift that won't last very long, steel though it is, will be so deeply appreciated she'll forgive it its short, merry life. It's a gift box of canned delicacies such as smoked clams, cocktail meat balls, date nut bread, bone chicken and other yummies. These are wonderful for the bride and groom as a party of two or when they're entertaining.

Since marriage has its business side, why not outfit the bride's desk with stapler, paper clips, letter opener and scissors, hole puncher, pencil sharpener and file boxes for recipes and bills? You'll be smoothing the way for the rough budgeting sessions ahead.

AUTOMATIC OPENER—Gone forever are cranking, twisting and sharp, uneven edges when you open cans with this automatic electric wonder. Mounted as shown or as counter appliance (with optional base legs), performance is just a touch away.

This Can Opener Will Please Homemaker

The modern homemaker's schedule is, like many of the products she buys, an "instant" one. Instant cooking. Instant cleaning. Instant almost everything in the daily routine.

She prefers it this way, actually. The quicker the chores disappear, the quicker she can relax and enjoy her home, family and life. (And incidentally, she can thank "instant" electricity and the wonderful world of appliances for those precious moments of relaxation.)

Want to please her then? Simply? Inexpensively? It's easy.

A new kitchen item—the automatic electric can opener—is one that will please. Whether she be a new bride, a partner on an anniversary, or just a sensible person who appreciates an electrical gift, this portable or positioned timesaver will be welcome.

Of several available in the latest sleek styling for modern kitchens, there is one that is both portable or designed for mounting on convenient wall space. Either way, it serves expertly to do its job in seconds.

With the simple pressing of a stop-start bar, the electric can opener completes its task on any type of round can automatically. Once the can is put in position between a steel cutter and drive wheel, it is locked in place and punctured. A ceramic magnet removes the cut-out lid and holds it. No more pesky push, pull and pressure.

Another electric, automatic can opener on the market does the job precisely, too. This one, a counter top beauty that plugs in anywhere since it is portable, has a concealed retractable platform under its base. This can fold down to accommodate extra large 46-ounce cans on the counter or table top.

These gleaming gems of white casing and trimmed in chrome are listed by Underwriters' Laboratories for safety and ability. And they are perhaps tangible evidence that the handiest gifts come in small packages . . . to live better, every instant of the day, electrically.
